INTRODUCTION

The Mandate of the Government of Nunavut (GN) for 2009-2013 is titled “Tamapta/CL^{CC}: Building our future together” (Tamapta). It consists of a Vision, Guiding Principles, Priorities, and an Action Plan for the coming term of this government. It espouses a Vision for the year 2030 and seeks to address the needs of Nunavummiut.

The Tamapta mandate is based in large part on what Nunavummiut had to say about the Government of Nunavut through the “Qanukkanniq Report Card”, which was conducted in the spring and summer of 2009 and was made public on October 1, 2009. That project collected the public’s perceptions of government and presented a number of recommendations. Along with the Vision and Priorities, those recommendations served as the basis for Full Caucus crafting a detailed Action Plan as the final document to complete the Tamapta mandate.

The Government of Nunavut Business Plan 2011-14 is the formal statement of the Government’s goals for the next three years, including its Vision and Guiding Principles. The Business Plan articulates the strategic and operational priorities for each core business line of the government’s departments and territorial corporations.

The Government of Nunavut’s Business Plan is made up of the strategic plans of ten departments, two territorial corporations, and the Office of the Legislative Assembly. The Business Plan is a strategic and operational plan, which provides a detailed background for the Government of Nunavut’s 2011-2014 Main Estimates.

This is the second year that the Government of Nunavut has crafted a multi-year Business Plan. By stating operational priorities for the years 2011 to 2014, the Business Plan provides operational details for the implementation of Tamapta for the coming three years. The Legislative Assembly will still review the Main Estimates and Business Plan annually. However, it is hoped that by extending the program planning cycle to three years, both planning and budgeting will be enhanced. By presenting this detailed plan for the next three years, the Government will improve its focus on those issues which Members of the Legislative Assembly, and ultimately all Nunavummiut, have stated are most important to them.

While each department’s element of the Business Plan previously included expenditure projections for three years, the Business Plan now also includes specific program priorities for each of those years.

The Business Plan is introduced by the Tamapta/CL^{CC}: Building our future together mandate, as it provides the context for the government’s plans, the full Vision & Priorities, including the Guiding Principles, are reproduced as the introduction to this plan. The full Action Plan, with its 61 priority action areas, has not been included in this document due to its length. The full document is readily available on the Government of Nunavut website at www.gov.nu.ca.

This is followed by a GN Inuit Employment Plan at the beginning of the Business Plan. The Departmental sections that follow focus on Core Business, detailing departmental program areas and tactical/operational priorities for the next three years.

The Environmental Scan provides the context, or setting, for the operations of each department. Their clients, challenges (constraints and pressures) and opportunities are described. The Environmental Scan also outlines critical issues for all departments – what is critical to keep in mind or do to accomplish our mission.

The Inuit Employment Plan provides information on both government-wide Inuit employment goals and initiatives for the 2011-2012 fiscal year, as well as an aggregation of initiatives of individual departments. The Department of Human Resources, with the assistance of all other departments and agencies is currently working on preparing a multi-year (2011-2014) Inuit Employment Plan for the entire Government of Nunavut as an organization. It is felt that an organizational perspective and plans are required, in addition to the initiatives and plans of individual departments.

The Core Business section describes all departments' business lines and their corresponding budgets. The budgets include departmental three-year program forecasts. For each line of business, a status report is provided on priorities identified for the 2010-2011 fiscal year. New priorities for each program are outlined for 2011 to 2014.

The Appendix for each department provides a detailed financial summary for operations. This information ties the Business Plan to the Main Estimates. Some departments have further appendices with information relevant to their operations.

Electronic copies of all relevant mandate, planning, and budget documents, including the GN 2011-2014 Business Plan, can be found on the Government of Nunavut's new website at www.gov.nu.ca.

Building our future together

Government of Nunavut Priorities

OUR VISION

Our vision comes from who we are, what we have accomplished, and where we are heading. The next 20 years will come and go very quickly. Guided by Inuit values and culture, by the year 2030:

Nunavummiut will continue to have a highly valued quality of life and a much better standard of living for those most in need.

Individuals and families will all be active, healthy and happy.

Communities will be self-reliant, based on Inuit societal values, with reduced dependence on government.

Nunavut will be recognized for our unique culture, our ability to help one another, and for our useful contributions to Canadian and global issues.

TOGETHER WE CAN REACH OUR VISION

It will take all of us working together, for the next two decades, to reach our vision. The 2030 vision for Nunavut acknowledges and builds on our history as a Territory and the good work that has already been done. But there is still much more to do and government cannot act alone.

The actions we take today will have a big impact on tomorrow. With this in mind, the mandate from 2009 – 2013 addresses our most important priorities for people and for our communities. It ensures that for generations to come Nunavut is a wonderful place to live with a wide range of opportunities and a variety of economies.

Our past, the present, and our future:

- In the first ten years (1999 – 2009) Nunavut came into formal existence and is now well established as a Territory. In the beginning, the focus was on developing a system for governance, infrastructure, basic programs and services and making a good start on cultivating our ability to govern ourselves.
- In this mandate (2009 – 2013) we will keep going - maintain the momentum - by working together with Nunavummiut. Our focus will be on communities and people working with government to build our future. We will review where we are, and build on our successes while improving the things that are not working well.
- Over the next ten years (between now and 2020) we will continue to actively pursue the goals of the first two Assemblies, without losing sight of our long-term priorities.
- Through steady progress (between now and 2030) Nunavut will be better able to realize and live up to its potential and will allow us to reach our vision.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Inuit have always lived in a harsh climate. Survival is only achieved by working together and passing on life skills and principles for living. Over the past ten years, our government has been guided by Inuit societal values, including those outlined in Pinasuaqtavut. We will continue to be guided by these principles from now into the future:

Inuuqatigiitsiarniq:	respecting others, relationships and caring for people.
Tunnganarniq:	fostering good spirit by being open, welcoming and inclusive.
Pijitsirniq:	serving and providing for family and/or community.
Aajiiqatigiinni:	decision making through discussion and consensus.
Pilimmaksarniq/Pijariuqsarniq:	development of skills through observation, mentoring, practice, and effort.
Piliriqatigiinni/Ikajuqtigiinni:	working together for a common cause.
Qanuqtuurniq:	being innovative and resourceful.
Avatittinnik Kamatsiarniq:	respect and care for the land, animals and the environment.

WE SHOULD ALL HAVE WHAT WE NEED

All Nunavummiut deserve to have their basic needs met. This means working together with families and communities to ensure:

- Affordable, healthy food, safe water, and a home
- Safety
- A sense of belonging and purpose
- Family support and friendship
- Education and opportunities to learn
- Communication in our preferred language
- Personal responsibility
- Pride in our culture and in who we are
- Stewardship of our environment and wildlife
- Access to the land for personal growth
- Opportunities for fun, recreation and cultural activities

TAMAPTA: BUILDING OUR FUTURE TOGETHER

We can improve the quality of life for all Nunavummiut. Our government is making a solid commitment to undertake and support the following priorities in the years 2009 to 2013:

➤ Improve education and training outcomes

Nunavut should have a wider range of options for education, adult learning and training. We need to recognize all types of accomplishments to empower our youth to take on leadership roles that reflect their personal aspirations and culture. Our goal is to have more graduates and to reduce the gap between unemployed people and job opportunities. Families will be encouraged to work with schools to find more ways to support students and help them continue learning.

➤ Reduce poverty

Too many Nunavummiut live in poverty and suffer its effects. We believe that everyone should have their basic needs met and we are committed to doing this. Developing a standard for Nunavut's quality of life will be a start to ensuring that all Nunavummiut will have what they need.

➤ Connect our community

Elders provide cultural continuity, help develop leadership, and pass on our traditional skills and knowledge. All generations, from youth to elders, will be encouraged and supported in expanding their individual roles in governance and leadership. We will increase opportunities and programs to support social, sports, recreational and traditional activities in communities and on the land.

➤ Increase housing options

Everyone deserves to have a home. As our population continues to grow, we will build more housing and provide better diversification in the type of housing available. In doing this, we will provide opportunities for Nunavummiut to learn new skills and be gainfully employed while addressing one of our most important needs.

➤ Increase support for culture and the arts

Nunavut is recognized for its unique language, culture, heritage and rich artistic presence. By taking active ownership of our cultural identity, we will provide more opportunities for all aspects of the arts to flourish. We will work together with communities, artists, and businesses to build a more cohesive culture and arts sector. It will include traditional and contemporary visual arts, language, performing arts, and all other forms of artistic expression.

➤ Help those at risk in our communities

There are too many people experiencing personal pain and hardships without enough assurance that they will be helped. We will establish an office for advocacy and action on behalf of challenged and disadvantaged individuals and groups. Government support will be inclusive and integrated, offering help for all those experiencing serious difficulties but targeting help to those at most significant risk or disadvantage.

➤ Support community-based, sustainable economies

Inuit have historically worked together as families and communities to provide for themselves while caring for our land and natural resources. We should all have opportunities to take care of our family needs in a way that is consistent with our interests and abilities, our cultural values and current realities. By working in partnership with government, communities will become more economically active, productive and self reliant and Nunavummiut will continue to be stewards of our environment.

➤ Address social concerns at their roots

We have spent a long time talking about issues and finding ways to resolve them. It is essential to be more holistic in our approaches and to understand what is causing the problems in the first place. Early prevention and intervention will help to reduce alcohol and drug abuse, suicide and crime, especially if the solutions are driven by community members. Many people are already actively involved in helping their communities as volunteers. Enhancing our cultural pride and asserting our identity will further strengthen our self-sufficiency and ability to help each other as families and communities.

➤ Improve health through prevention

Health and wellbeing of all Nunavummiut is critical to improving northern quality of life. We all have a role to play in being active, healthy and happy. Our focus will be on early prevention of health problems and improving the overall standard of living in Nunavut. Emphasis will be placed on those who are the least able to look after themselves.

➤ Enhance our recognition in Canada and the world

Nunavut is a wonderful and welcoming place to live, with a vibrant mix of many cultures. Climate change and its impact on the Northwest Passage have increased awareness of the north and the ways of Inuit. The eyes of the world are on our Territory.

We must now show the determination and ability to present our views and ideas on matters of national and global importance. We will assert our presence, establishing our credibility and voice outside of Nunavut.

➤ Strengthen the public service

Through the Qanukkanniq Report Card, Nunavummiut provided their input on the areas where their government was performing well and where the public service required improvement. All of the actions under Tamapta will be either delivered by or coordinated with the Government of Nunavut's public service. In order to reach our Vision, the public service must have the resources and tools necessary to effectively carry out their work, including improved financial, human resources, business planning, and informatics systems.

DECLARATION OF CONFIDENCE

We believe in Nunavut.

We have hope for its vibrant future,
built by our people pursuing their dreams.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCAN

In working toward its Vision, the Government of Nunavut must take into account a wide range of issues that address the unique opportunities and challenges of the territory and its people. These circumstances include Nunavut's unique system of governance and the many external forces affecting our potential for success as we advance our priorities. The following have an important bearing on the approaches the Government will adopt in pursuing its work.

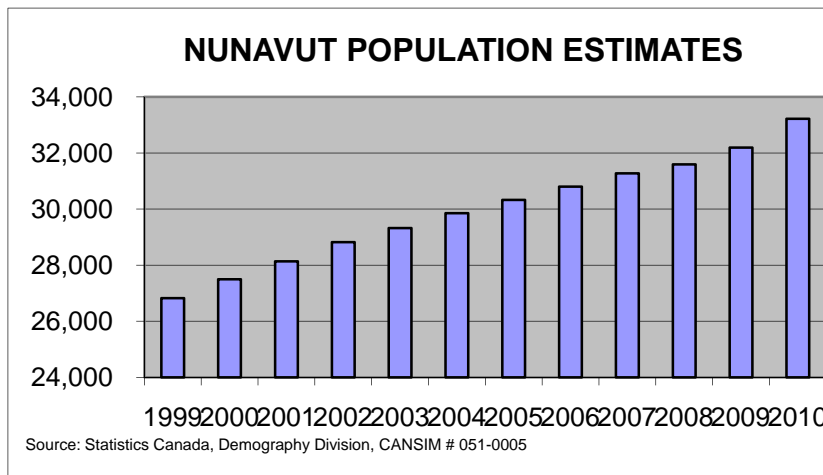

The environmental factors having the most direct impacts on our work include:

- Demographics
- Geography
- The Economy
- Social and Cultural Factors
- Energy and the Environment
- Infrastructure
- Resource & Capacity Challenges
- Governance

This section of the Business Plan will explore the impact that all of these factors have on the approach the Government of Nunavut takes to serving Nunavummiut.

Demographics

Nunavut has Canada's youngest and one of the fastest growing populations. It is a population that continues to place new demands on the health and education systems and on the wage economy. These demographics pose challenges, but also offer opportunities, for all departments and agencies of the Government of Nunavut.

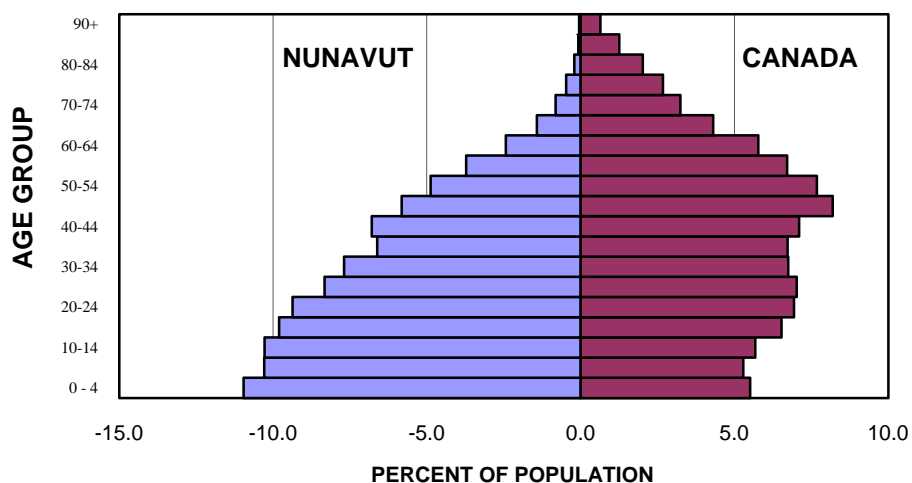

In order to effectively plan for future growth of programs, it is essential that demographics, including the age distribution of the population, be consistently monitored and incorporated into strategic and operational plans.

Geography

Nunavut's many beautiful landscapes, natural resources and ecological zones provide many opportunities. However, the sheer size of the territory in relation to its population causes considerable challenges as well. Nunavut covers 1.994 million square kilometres of land mass, with a population estimated at 33,220 (as of July 1, 2010). This results in a population density of only 0.017 people per square kilometre. For comparison, Canada has a population density of 3.4 people per square kilometre (based on 9.985 km², with a population of 34,108,752).

This widely dispersed population presents a significant challenge, given the steep cost of transportation. In order to serve the public, there is a need for transportation from or to those communities on a regular basis. These transportation costs vary widely, but regardless of the community, the transportation costs for government services are considerable.

The headquarters functions for most government departments are located in the capital city of Iqaluit, but their operations must remain focused on the needs of all Nunavummiut. The public being served by the Government of Nunavut is widely dispersed in 25 communities, each with its own municipal government and unique circumstances. It is crucial that government come to understand the needs of these communities, in order to work effectively with Nunavummiut to ensure that everyone's needs are addressed.

The Economy

Nunavut's mixed economy is characterized by traditional land use activities, a relatively large public sector, and vast mineral potential. Numerous economic sectors hold great potential, but are currently underdeveloped, such as tourism, fisheries, arts & crafts and film.

Key challenges in the development of Nunavut's economy include the development of transportation infrastructure, the development of a robust community-based entrepreneurial sector, the orderly development of mineral and petroleum resources, the cost of reaching suppliers and markets, and the need to build capacity in the workforce. Continuing economic problems include the high cost of doing business, low employment rate, and economic leakages and distortions. Nunavummiut need to be in a position to participate in all aspects of economic growth in the territory. The primary objective of government in this area is to help transform Nunavut's enormous potential into economic benefits for Nunavummiut.

Community Economic Development and Entrepreneurship

The private sector, especially small Nunavut-based businesses, still represents only a small portion of the economy. Many business opportunities require management skills and capital that small business owners do not currently possess. There is a need to support the young and growing population of Nunavut through education, training and skills development in business. Local human resource capacity issues, which limit economic growth in the territory, must be addressed through education and skills development, in order to promote and support local entrepreneurship.

Community-based economic development provides for the identification of community strengths and weaknesses, particular growth opportunities, and community-specific needs. Thus, economic development becomes a tool for strengthening community, for fostering social inclusion, and for reducing dependency on government assistance.

Mineral and Petroleum Exploration and Development

Nunavut is recognized as one of Canada's most attractive jurisdictions for mineral and petroleum exploration and investment. The development of our mineral and petroleum resources has the potential to generate significant economic benefits for Nunavut. However, it is imperative that development occur with the agreement of Nunavummiut, and that individuals and businesses in the territory are prepared to take full advantage of the opportunities.

In 2010, commodity prices continued to recover from their recession-low attained in March 2009. This led to a 50% rise in mineral exploration spending in Nunavut, up from the 2009 low.

The Meadowbank gold mine started production in the first quarter of 2010. Its operator, Agnico-Eagle, has further increased its stake in Nunavut's gold sector by purchasing the Meliadine gold project near Rankin Inlet. In the Kitikmeot region, the Hope Bay gold project (Newmont Mining) is in the process of completing the construction of its first mine. Production is expected to start in 2012.

The sustained high price of gold combined with the strong demand for mineral products bodes well for the mining sector of Nunavut.

Nunavut has excellent petroleum potential. Current estimates place its conventional undiscovered resources at 25 percent of Canada's crude oil resources and 34 percent of Canada's natural gas resources. Significant future exploration activity will be required for a more accurate picture of Nunavut's oil and gas potential, as much of the current seismic data is dated.

Control of land and resource management responsibilities is essential to long-term economic development and the territory's self-sufficiency. Currently, the federal government controls the revenue generated from developed Crown lands in Nunavut. This is not the case in the provinces or the Yukon.

Devolution of authority for land management from the federal government to the territorial government is essential if Nunavummiut are to be self-reliant and the beneficiaries of future economic growth. Devolution will provide Nunavut with control and the opportunity to collect mineral and petroleum royalties. Given the Government of Canada's recent appointment of a Chief Federal Representative for Nunavut devolution, the Government of Nunavut must dedicate resources to devolution preparation and negotiation.

Tourism, Trade and Cultural Industries

Nunavut's distinctive attractions have tremendous potential to support the development of tourism. The tourism sector generates external capital, promotes Inuit culture and the protection of the territory's natural resources. It plays a key role in enhancing Nunavut's reputation in Canada and abroad. In 2010, tourism regained some of the ground it had lost during the global recession of 2009.

The trade of locally produced products faces many challenges in Nunavut. On the supply side, Nunavut businesses and development corporations need to become export-ready, to develop value-added components, and build the capacity to enter extra-territorial markets. On the demand side, viable niche markets for Nunavut products need to be developed or expanded through branding, marketing and establishment of distribution channels. Nunavut produces unique products in film, arts and crafts, and tourism, and each sector provides important economic opportunities for the territory.

Inuit cultural activities, and above all, Inuit stories, form the basis for viable economic activity and help create sustainable livelihoods for families through the arts, crafts and cultural industries. From soapstone carvings to the production of feature films, Inuit knowledge is applied in many artistic media today, for which there is a ready market. Making art contributes to the development of pride in culture, self-esteem and even healing. It promotes learning and entrepreneurship. The products of our cultural industries are known worldwide, and they contribute to the success of other economic sectors, such as tourism. However, accessibility of markets needs to be fostered and marketing opportunities need to be generated and supported.

In 2010-11, a primary concern for Nunavut will be the state of the Canadian economy in the wake of trade tensions and possible currency wars following the global financial crisis. Fortunately, Canada was not impacted by the crisis as severely as other countries. Canadian financial institutions practiced more stringent lending practices and were governed by stricter regulations. On the positive, commodity prices will likely remain at healthy levels. The Government of Nunavut needs to continue closely monitoring the Global, National and Territorial impacts of the uncertain economic situation in order to most effectively forecast and risk manage the impact on the Government's priorities.

Labour Market

The Nunavut Bureau of Statistics monitors and reports monthly on labour force statistics. The challenge of improving employment opportunities, and the capacity of Nunavummiut to gain that employment, is one that is shared across all governments and other institutions. The government must continue to strive not only for public service employment, but also to enable and promote growth of economy through the private sector.

On average for July to September 2010, the number of employed people in Nunavut was estimated at 10,800, up by 900 from the 3-month average ending in September 2009. Also on average for July to September 2010, the employment rate was 55.9% while the unemployment rate was estimated at 14.2%.

Comparative data from earlier years must be used with caution, as the Labour Force Survey has recently been expanded to nineteen communities, having previously been based exclusively on Nunavut's ten largest communities. However, the general trend was two years of employment growth from 2005 to 2007, followed by two years of decreases in the number of employed people from 2007 to 2009. In 2010, employment was once again rising, and quite substantially.

Employment for both Inuit and non-Inuit have increased. In September 2010, the employment rate was 47% for Inuit and 89.8% for non-Inuit, which constitutes a smaller gap when compared with the previous year.

Income Support

Between 1999 and 2008/09 Income Support expenditures have increased from $21 million to $28.1 million, largely due to an increased caseload. In 2008, approximately 6,302 different heads of household (15,523 recipients), or 50% of family units continue to seek and are reliant on income support during the year (Department of Education data).

It must be understood that self-reliance is a shared responsibility between the individual, the community and the government. As Nunavut's large cohort of young people become adults, efforts must continue to improve the link between income support to programs and services that provide Nunavummiut with the skills to participate fully in their community and the economy.

In September 2006, preliminary work began on an automated Income Support Case Management System. The system is designed to produce statistical data, track program overpayments, produce cheques, track earned income, meet federal reporting requirements under the National Child Benefit, and automatically produce taxable income statements (T-5s) at the end of the calendar year. The system may assist in identifying individuals who need help applying for their eligible federal old age benefits. Starting this fiscal year, all Iqaluit clients will be managed using this system. Testing in another community is the anticipated next step and may begin near the end of the 2010-11 fiscal year.

Social and Cultural Factors

Culture and Heritage

Nunavut's unique culture and history forms a defining element in the creation of the territory. The material record of the human history of Nunavut and the accomplishments of past generations takes many forms, including thousands of archaeological sites and artifacts, cultural landscapes, and historic buildings. It also includes vast collections of written documents, photographs, film, oral histories, video and sound recordings that document people, places, events, language and traditions.

Nunavut's heritage assets are a largely untapped source of invaluable knowledge that is directly relevant to critical issues facing the Government of Nunavut in the areas of elders, youth, language, and Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit.

Nunavummiut express a desire to have a government that reflects their values, traditional knowledge, and approach to life. The Government of Nunavut has the opportunity to create a new model for governance in Canada that integrates Inuit Societal Values, progressing to reach a representative level of Inuit employment, and integration and promotion of the Inuit Language.

While the Government of Nunavut does follow the guiding principles of Inuit Societal Values outlined in Tamapta/CL^{CC}: Building our future together, much work remains to be done to reflect those values in all of the government's policies, programs, and workplaces.

Language

Departments and public agencies must work toward an improved, effective and efficient compliance with the existing Official Languages Act (NWT 1988), and prepare for the new requirements once the new Act comes into effect (passed in 2008, but not yet in force). Its companion, the Inuit Language Protection Act, was approved in September 2008, and requires all government departments and agencies to take positive action to protect and promote the Inuit language, to ensure that it remains at the center of education, work and daily life across the territory.

Under the existing Official Languages Act, any member of the public in Nunavut has the right to communicate with and to receive available services from territorial institutions in the official language of their choice, in the Inuit Language, English or French.

Administrative heads of territorial institutions are bound by the legislation to communicate with the public and offer services in the Official Languages must take appropriate measures (including an “active offer”), so that the public can avail itself of its rights at head and central offices, particularly when the services in question involve urgent or confidential matters.

The Inuit Language Protection Act states that the Inuit of Nunavut have an inherent right to use the Inuit Language – a right that cannot be taken away, and that must be protected and promoted through positive action by departments and agencies of the Government of Nunavut. The Act requires measures be taken in three priority areas to support:

The right to Inuit Language instruction in the school system. Recognizing that language is most easily acquired in childhood, the Act requires the government to provide children with lifelong reading and writing skills through a learning environment rich in the Inuit Language.

The right to work in the Inuit Language in territorial government institutions. The Government of Nunavut is committed to achieving representative levels of Inuit employment at every level of its public service. The Act requires government to promote the advancement of public servants already fluent, and to support the development of language skills by non-Inuit Language speakers.

The use of the Inuit Language in day-to-day services and information. When governments, municipalities, community organizations and businesses direct certain types of information and services to the public, they must do so in the Inuit Language.

The Government of Nunavut must also ensure that it consistently recognizes the status and rights of the territory’s French and English speaking minorities. Language equality will be addressed through the augmentation of the linguistic and human resources in the Translation Bureau and by strengthening and developing Inuit Language terminology for Nunavummiut.

The Inuit Uqausinginnik Taiguusiliuqtiit (IUT) will be a tremendous resource throughout the implementation of the new language legislation. It will make decisions about language development, use and standardization and assist organizations needing assistance with the proper use of the Inuit Language on their signs, documents, or who require new or standardized terminology to be developed for services or activities to which the Bills apply.

IUT will also be able to collaborate and cooperate with other organizations, within or outside of Nunavut, on joint initiatives supporting language development or standardization. It has the duty to establish Inuit Language competency standards, and to develop and implement surveys or tests which evaluate Inuit Language proficiency for purposes including the certification of an individual's educational or employment skill in the Inuit Language. The IUT can share information, and collaborate with an organization, academic institution or an individual with the objective of strengthening and promoting the development, use and standardization of the Inuit Language. This includes giving opportunities for language professionals like translators, linguists, elders and educators to meet and work together, share best practices, take part in training workshops and so on. Work of the IUT will affect the school system, public service, and certification of teachers or interpreters/translators (trained by the Nunavut Arctic College).

Inuit Societal Values

Elders provide cultural continuity, help develop leadership, and pass on our traditional skills and knowledge. It is a Tamapta priority for this Government to use approaches that reflect Inuit Societal Values to build a strong future for Nunavummiut.

Programming that collaborates with Elders will focus on Inuit social knowledge & values, Inuit ways of counseling, cultural teaching for healthy living, traditional skills & knowledge workshops on land based healing and wellness & counseling.

Community based Inuit Societal Values Projects are initiatives to promote Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit and to strengthen the role of Elders in addressing the social problems and issues in Nunavut. The intent is to provide Inuit with the opportunity to have a say in maintaining order and peace according to their culture and tradition, as well as identifying gaps in and finding possible solutions to community and social wellness issues.

Youth

Sport and recreational programming in communities plays a vital role in developing and sustaining a healthy and active population. Nunavummiut of all ages benefit from programs provided at the community, regional, and territorial level. Intercommunity competitive opportunities are often determined by flight costs and logistics, since participants must travel by air between communities. Opportunities must be sought to support Nunavummiut who wish to represent their territory nationally and internationally at major multi-sport games such as the Arctic Winter Games, Canada Games, and North American Indigenous Games.

Traditional activities are also important to youth as they develop, and opportunities to participate in these activities must be fostered and supported by communities and government.

While the Government of Nunavut promotes positive role models and encourages youth to participate in or volunteer for community events, there is always a need for youth to get involved in building their own futures. These initiatives are successful only with effective partnerships with communities, families, and elders.

Even with efforts to promote healthy and active youth, challenges persist, which can have negative impacts on the self-esteem and productivity of our youth. The recently released suicide prevention strategy draws attention to the most alarming of these challenges, and the forthcoming implementation plan will address some of the most significant challenges facing youth.

Elders

The majority of elderly people in Nunavut are unilingual Inuit Language speakers who face challenges in accessing programs and services provided by governments and other organizations. This further highlights the urgency to focus on using the Inuit Language in the workplace and ensuring that there are government positions that can provide services and programs in the language of choice.

Elders who have lived on the land are a repository of oral history and tradition, and may be able to give youth critical adaptation tools, helping them connect with their culture, heritage, and the land. Dialogue between youth and elders also provides opportunities for elders to understand the modern influences on the lifestyle and unique challenges of our youth.

In addition to documenting the past, elders' input is needed to shape the future of government in order to reflect Inuit Societal Values in its daily operations.

Educational Attainment

As the global and Canadian economy recovers, economic activity in Nunavut will also recover, particularly in the mining sector. However, Inuit Nunavummiut may not benefit from the recovery to the same degree as non-Aboriginal Canadians, both in Nunavut and in the rest of Canada. In large part, this is due to differences in educational opportunities and attainment.

For all educational attainment indicators, except trades and college, Inuit Canadians aged 24-64 are significantly behind non-Aboriginal Canadians. Overall, just 31% of Inuit Nunavummiut reported that they have some post-secondary education compared to 61% of non-Aboriginal Canadians. The difference is most acute for those without high school graduation and university. The differences in educational indicators are reflected in the 2006 employment and unemployment rates and average earnings. Inuit Canadians do not participate in and benefit from the economy to the same degree as non-aboriginal Canadians.

Educational Attainment of Inuit and Non-Aboriginal People aged 25 to 64

	Inuit Nunavummiut	Non-Inuit Nunavummiut	Non- Aboriginal Canadians
Without high school graduation	60%	7%	15%
High school graduation or equivalent	9%	14%	24%
Post-Secondary Qualification	31%	78%	61%

Educational Needs

Nunavut’s growing population will have a long-term impact on the educational programs and services offered by the Government of Nunavut and Nunavut Arctic College at all levels, putting pressure on existing structural and human capital. Geography plays an important role in the design, delivery, and evaluation of educational programming in Nunavut. Improved information technology infrastructure is essential to support distance learning and program delivery in all education and training areas throughout the territory.

Our successes have been driven in large part by funding targeted at specific employer needs. As a result, Nunavut has a series of impressive achievements in career training and professional education. However, we are challenged by the need to make similar advances in building general adult learning capacity both for Nunavummiut preparing for college and for Nunavummiut who need general university preparation.

The most critical challenge in developing a skilled Nunavummiut workforce able to compete in a modern economy is the high school diploma or equivalent. 60% of Inuit Nunavummiut aged 25-64 lack high school graduation compared to only 15% of non-Aboriginal Canadians. A major reason for this extreme situation was the lack of adequate investment in high school education prior to the creation of Nunavut. Funding is urgently needed to encourage and enable adult Nunavummiut to complete a High School Graduation Diploma for Mature Students.

The next most critical challenge is post-secondary education. Only 4% of Inuit Nunavummiut have some university education, compared to 28% of non-Aboriginal Canadians. Successful university partnerships have already been delivered in Nunavut (e.g. teacher and nurse education), but general university capacity also needs to be built.

There is currently no university in the north. There may be significant opportunities to provide accessible university education in the North, for the North and by the North - education that is uniquely committed to the sustainability of the North and the needs and cultures of the people who live here.

Early Childhood Education

Licensed childcare facilities and early childhood programs are operated by non-governmental societies or groups. The Government of Nunavut assists organizations through funding and support to help facilitate services. Due to cost of program delivery, some licensed facilities have had to raise parental fees, increasing the financial burden on families whose children participate in licensed early childhood development programs, which may hinder participation in training or entry into the work force. The availability of appropriate early childhood spaces and programs is limited in many communities, and there is a need to ensure that staff working in these facilities and programs is properly trained. The Education Act mandates that District Education Authorities must provide early childhood programs that promote Inuit language and culture.

Kindergarten to Grade 12 (K-12) Schools

High school education attainment within Nunavut has shown significant improvement over the past decade, with nearly 250 students graduating in 2009, compared to 134 in 2004, and only 91 in 1998 (Department of Education data). Youth are becoming more aware of the positive impacts an education can have on all aspects of their future. It must be noted that graduation rates from grade 12, college, and university remain significantly below national averages. While progress is being made to reduce the dropout rate in Nunavut, overall 38% of adults have not graduated from high school.

The K-12 school system will face numerous challenges during the next few years such as the need to improve student attendance, implementing bilingual education, and complying with new legislation such as the Education Act, Inuit Language Protection Act and Official Languages Act. It is anticipated that upwards of 70 new teachers must be hired and housed in order to meet the required pupil-teacher ratio in 2011-12. Increasing the number of Inuit educators, producing bilingual curriculum, teaching and learning materials for all grades, and addressing impediments that affect the hiring of new teachers, such as the availability and affordability of housing, are all important in strengthening K-12 education in Nunavut.

Adult Education

Post secondary education has a direct impact on people's ability to compete in the labour market, on the types of jobs they obtain, and the remuneration they receive. As the number of grade 12 graduates increases, the post secondary cohort in Nunavut is expected to grow in parallel. This will have a significant impact on the demand for programs and services. This growth will result in increased pressures in all of the following program areas: post secondary education, student financial assistance, early childhood services, literacy, trades training, apprenticeships, and adult basic education.

A priority effort is also needed to focus strategically on raising literacy skills (English and Inuit language) and basic education levels. New, short-term funding from the federal government fiscal stimulus package initiated in 2009 will support an increase in funding availability and flexibility over the next few years, but does not provide a long-term solution. The current Adult Basic Education and General Education Development Program programs are not meeting the needs of all clients. A made-in-Nunavut Mature High School Graduation program, as well as the utilization of Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) in skills development and recognition may improve adult education outcomes. Training and educational opportunities for unilingual Inuit adults is also important. Without these efforts, there will be very few candidates with the basic skills needed to participate in Nunavut's future economic opportunities.

Health Status of Nunavummiut

The delivery of health care services faces many unique challenges and needs when it comes to providing for the health and well-being of Nunavummiut. The health status of Nunavummiut is significantly below the national average. Overall life expectancy trails the Canadian average by 10 years, while infant mortality rates are almost four times higher in Nunavut. Tuberculosis continues to be a critical public health issue for the government. Social problems in Nunavut are also of major concern.

Incidents of child abuse, family violence, and suicide are stark reminders that these social problems will only lead to an increased impact on the already overburdened health and social services system.

The Government of Nunavut recognizes that for health indicators to improve, a focus on healthy living and injury prevention is required. Active living, eating nutritious foods and abstinence from drugs, tobacco and alcohol are the foundations of prevention. Healthy living encourages healthier pregnancies, lower rates of chronic disease, and mental wellness. Healthy living is also closely related to providing Nunavummiut with structures that support healthy living. This includes having the right to safe drinking water, appropriate infrastructure, such as recreation centres, good education, economic development, clean living environments, community and family ties, and above all, quality of life.

Sustainability of the health system

Improving the overall financial and administrative management of Nunavut's health care system is crucial to the sustainability of service delivery in the territory. Nunavut's health care system and social services delivery system are facing significant challenges as the cost of airfare, agency nurses, medical technology, infrastructure, residential care, and other related expenditures continues to rise. The Government of Nunavut continues to invest additional resources into public health, recognizing that by making investments in health promotion and preventative care now, the high cost of primary health care in the future can be offset.

In order to help contain cost increases, proactive steps are being taken to strengthen financial and human resource management. Greater emphasis is being placed on the evaluation of departmental programs and services to ensure effectiveness and efficiency. The Department of Health and Social Services is undertaking a comprehensive review to establish acceptable levels of service for health care delivery in each of Nunavut's 25 communities. This evaluation will provide the essential background information, evidence and expert guidance needed to support future decisions about optimal staffing and service delivery models.

Health Information

Current gaps in health data and capacity in the specialized field of health information and research compromise the ability to effectively design, deliver and evaluate its programs, and perhaps more importantly, report on the health status of Nunavummiut.

In order to meet the growing health care and social services needs of Nunavummiut, there is a need for accurate, up-to-date data. A comprehensive, sophisticated data system is imperative to effectively track and direct limited resources, using factual data on health and social indicators evident in the territory. The Electronic Health Record (EHR) initiative is currently underway and will be fully implemented in all communities in Nunavut by 2013. However, a public health surveillance system is still required, as well as a case management system to carry out social services related responsibilities.

Crime & Justice

There are a number of factors posing unique challenges for the administration of justice. Unless changes are made to the existing systems, the young demographic and rapid population growth will continue to put strain on the formal institutions of the criminal justice system. Youth are most likely to come into conflict with law enforcement, which has a direct impact on the resources required to assist offenders, victims, and communities.

Crime rates, especially for violence, in Nunavut are very high compared to the rest of Canada. The Government of Nunavut has made some progress in reducing crime rates, but new initiatives that are community-driven and culturally appropriate are needed. There is a need for a continued emphasis on crime prevention and programs for offenders and victims. Prevention requires a coordinated response involving individuals, families, communities, private and government resources.

Recent statistics provided by the RCMP "V" Division indicate that occurrences ranging from violation of territorial statutes, such as the Liquor Act, to Criminal Code violations have increased from 2008.

The increase in firearms-related offenses, breaches of the peace, break-ins, assaults, sexual assaults, and uttering threats speaks to the need for a coordinated strategic approach by all pertinent stakeholders to deal with crime prevention and reduction, as well as with appropriate and proportional sanctions for such offenses.

Many of these crimes are fuelled by substance abuse, predominantly alcohol, which again underscores the necessity for a coordinated approach to crime prevention, public safety and community justice that factors in both social and justice imperatives.

Many factors could help explain the high rate of crime in Nunavut, including low overall educational attainment, overcrowded homes, and substance abuse, which is frequently associated with unemployment, family violence, and suicide. The impact of substance abuse is felt by a wide range of people.

The high rates of domestic violence are well known and pose special challenges to the justice system. However, more information is required to understand crime rates and the effect of the various elements of the justice system on other types of crime. There remains a need for an integrated information system that can provide better communication and information sharing between various users.

The Corrections system suffers from a lack of institutional bed space to meet the increasing demand, and to repatriate all territorial offenders, male and female, who are currently being held in other jurisdictions, including the Northwest Territories, Ontario, and Nova Scotia. It is a challenge to provide culturally relevant programming to offenders, even within the territory, let alone in other jurisdictions.

Adequate support is needed for Community Justice Committees to develop community-based solutions. There is a need for enhancement and expansion of culturally sensitive, community-based programs to support victims and families, to prevent crime, and to work with offenders in their home communities. This would include community-based dispute resolution mechanisms, in place of southern adversarial practices or formal justice institutions.

A lack of understanding of the criminal, civil, and family justice systems makes it essential that public education material be provided to inform citizens about the justice system. Cross-cultural training within the justice system is needed to meet not only the clients' needs, but also the personnel who work in all areas of the department.

Energy and the Environment

Our Land

Nunavummiut are proud of our strong relationship to the land. Nunavut is rich in wildlife, fish and other natural resources. However, our ecosystems are fragile and have long recovery times. Nunavut's land, air, water and creatures need to be managed in such a way as to ensure that it can be enjoyed by future generations of Nunavummiut.

We are committed to supporting a sustainable and viable wildlife management regime in Nunavut, developing sustainable and viable fisheries, and the development and management of a representative system of territorial parks and special places, but this depends upon integrating Inuit Societal Values with the best available scientific knowledge available under the general guiding principles of conservation and sustainability.

Our Communities

With Nunavut's growing communities come the challenges of managing waste in an arctic environment, particularly given Nunavut's aging waste management infrastructure. Many communities are also burdened with abandoned waste sites, some of which are contaminated. Demands for increased development have driven the need to ensure that sustainable practices are employed and maintained in the long term.

The extent of potential climate change impacts on communities and community infrastructure is unknown. Communities need support from all levels of government in assessing and adapting to these impacts.

Many Nunavummiut depend on harvesting wildlife, fish and marine mammals for a large part of our food and income. These resources, if used sustainably, will help to ensure the availability of healthy food for Nunavummiut in the future, while also ensuring the health of our environment and contributing to healthy lifestyles.

There is an increasing amount of scrutiny of our wildlife management and conservation efforts at the national and international level. Actions and activities taking place in Nunavut are immediately available to interested parties worldwide, many of whom do not fully understand our sustainable co-management systems. Any perceived failure of Nunavut to meet external expectations can result in negative publicity and trade restrictions, as has been illustrated by the situation with both seals and polar bears.

Our Partners

Under the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement, land and resource management in Nunavut is based on an innovative co-management structure, which ensures that beneficiaries play a significant role in preserving our traditions, cultures and aspirations. While this process can be slow, expensive and time-consuming, the Government of Nunavut is committed to it and is working with our partners to evolve continually the process with the goal of improving efficiency and communications.

Collaborative partnerships from the local to international level are needed to accomplish our mandate. These include those within government, with other governments and with institutions of public government, crown corporations, designated Inuit organizations, boards, and public agencies.

The coordinated approach with our partners and stakeholders supports the sustainable use of wildlife and marine resources, protection of our environment and people, and the preservation of parks and conservation areas. By collaborating with other organizations and institutions, the impact of research and program dollars and increase or supplement to technical capacity can be maximized.

Climate Change

Global climate change is highly complex and dynamic, from both the scientific and social/cultural perspective. The timing, nature and severity of the impacts on Nunavut communities are difficult to predict and will vary locally and regionally.

Overall, the most prevalent observations of climate change in Nunavut include:

- The significant changes to the sea ice including its distribution, timing of freeze-up and thaw, and coverage;
- Average Arctic air temperatures that have increased at twice the rate of the global average; and
- Changes in permafrost: increased temperatures at the top layer and an overall decrease in the area covered by permafrost.

Because practically all infrastructure in Nunavut is constructed on permafrost, it is crucial that the Government of Nunavut participate actively in efforts to mitigate climate change, but also take active steps to prepare for and adapt to it.

Energy

Nunavut is one hundred percent reliant on imported fossil fuels for all of its energy. In 2009-10 the GN imported 171 million litres of fuel. The three major uses of fossil fuels in Nunavut are transportation (64 million litres), heating (63 million litres), and electricity generation (44 million litres).

Energy use has increased in Nunavut by 14% since 2000, while at the same time the amount of energy used per person decreased slightly by 4% over the same period. This means that our efficiency has improved slightly. Growth in energy use has primarily been in heating and electricity while transportation energy use has decreased somewhat. This increase in energy use is mainly due to population and economic growth. Growth in the mining sector is expected to be the primary driver of economic activity and will be the primary driver for growth in energy use and greenhouse gas use.

Each community in Nunavut has its own energy system and is spread out over a large geographical area, presenting serious challenges to having an energy system that is sustainable and reliable. All of Nunavut's fuel is purchased and shipped in bulk during a short summer season and stored in facilities in each community. This fuel is then resold at cost to Nunavummiut. If the price of oil happens to be high at the time fuel is purchased it can have a significant impact on the cost of energy in Nunavut.

In 2009-10 the GN paid nearly $140 million to import this energy, costing about $0.80/L. If for instance the price of fuel increases to $1 per litre then the annual costs for 170 million litres would be $170 million. This is a very expensive energy system which has resulted in the GN providing significant energy subsidies to residents. The total energy subsidies approached $40 million last year. These subsidies include electricity rate reductions, social and staff housing support, and senior home heating and income support.

In 2007, the Government of Nunavut released Ikummatiit: An Energy Strategy for Nunavut. This strategy focuses on reducing the reliance on fossil fuels, finding alternative energy sources, and promoting the efficient use of energy in the territory. Given the amount of physical infrastructure owned or under the control of the government and its agencies, the Government of Nunavut must play a leading role in directly reducing energy consumption. Indirect conservation effects can be achieved through efforts to make the public aware of energy conservation opportunities. Currently the GN is working on an alternative and renewable resource inventory which will enable the GN to make informed decision about the correct option for energy supply for Nunavut.

Infrastructure

Transportation and Communications

Nunavut is dependent on the importation of goods from outside of the territory. Health care, education and training also rely heavily on transportation. Furthermore, a reliable and efficient transportation system has positive impacts on economic investment.

Air transportation is the only year-round means to access neighbouring communities, other regions and the rest of Canada. Many airports require improvements for safety, security and maintenance purposes, and need to accommodate new security regulations and newer and more efficient aircraft.

All Nunavut communities depend on access to the sea for annual re-supply and participation in traditional harvesting. Some communities rely on this access for an emerging and increasingly important commercial fishery. The lack of adequate marine facilities affects the safety and efficiency of Nunavut's marine activities and is a barrier to the development of commercial fisheries, mineral exploration and development, and the territory's tourism sector.

The development of broadband infrastructure and management tools is vital to Nunavut's economic future, both to ensure efficient communications and to allow Nunavummiut to take advantage of emerging opportunities in e-commerce, trade and export, online training, and promotion of our cultural industries. However, the expiry of the federal Infrastructure II funding in 2012 brings considerable uncertainty to the continued affordability of broadband communications for Nunavummiut.

Support for Municipalities

The overall financial position of municipalities improved for the sixth year in a row, with one community that had been financially deficient for more than ten years emerging from deficit. Increased monitoring, coupled with training and increased utility funding allowed municipalities to gain financial ground.

Financial reporting for Nunavut municipalities has been improving, but attraction and retention of senior staff for administration and finance continues to be challenging. Improving the capacity of staff and increasing the stability of senior staff will be the key to keeping communities financially healthy.

Community Infrastructure

The costs for building and maintaining community and government infrastructure has been affected somewhat positively with a modest drop in material costs, due primarily to a dramatic change in the global economy. Labour costs have not fluctuated to the same extent and trades labour continues to be difficult to attract to the territory.

The Nunavut Community Infrastructure Advisory Committee (NCIAC) has undertaken the development of Integrated Community Infrastructure Sustainability Plans (ICSP) to create and measure long-term plans for each Nunavut Community. These plans are developed in consultation with each community. They will help communities achieve their environmental, cultural, social and economic goals.

The Department of Community & Government Services is improving the community consultation process, which will focus on improving community participation, fairness, transparency and accountability in the capital planning process.

Much community service infrastructure will require investment to comply with new environmental regulations.

Municipal Capacity

The Government of Nunavut supports building human resource capacity for municipalities through support of the Municipal Training Organization (MTO) with a mandate to identify community staff training needs, provide training to address those needs and to encourage the use of best practices – with the goal of continuous performance improvement in municipal operations.

The MTO is entering its sixth year of delivering the Municipal Government Certificate Program, which allows municipal employees and other community residents to receive accredited training and certification in municipal management and governance. The MTO also provides targeted training in areas such as class 3 drivers' licenses and airbrake courses for municipal drivers and firefighting training for Nunavut's municipal fire departments.

Nunavut Fire Protection

The need to maintain public safety, coupled with increasing costs of fire insurance coverage for Nunavut communities, required the development of an enhanced fire protection capability. Maintaining affordable fire insurance has become a major issue for Nunavut communities. The Fire Protection Strategy is a crucial element of the overall program. Training will continue to be the cornerstone of the Fire Protection Strategy.

Health Infrastructure

Many of the territory's health facilities require renovations or replacements to ensure that they meet operational requirements and national building code standards. There is also a need for medical and mobile equipment to meet minimum standards and keep pace with technological advances. A strategic investment in health infrastructure is necessary in order to increase capacity, meet the needs of a rapidly growing population and reduce patient risk.

Resource and Capacity Challenges

Allocation of resources is one of the most urgent issues facing the Government of Nunavut. With the tight fiscal situation, the Government of Nunavut must coordinate its approaches to providing services to the public to avoid duplication and optimize the use of available resources. It is only through this collaborative approach that success can be realized for all Nunavummiut in the future. The intended result is quality services that are well targeted and delivered in a cost-effective manner.

Employee Capacity

To pursue innovation requires talented public servants. The challenge for the GN is attracting and selecting the best candidates for available positions in the public service. It is essential that the Government of Nunavut develop the technical skills and knowledge of the public service to meet the goals and objectives of the GN. This is a challenge for any organization, but is particularly the case for a relatively newly established public service.

With the inclusion of a two million dollar training fund, departments and agencies have an opportunity to expand training and development opportunities for all public servants. The training fund helps address this systemic need within the GN, but the public service requires a long-term strategic approach that ties in performance management, the adoption of a succession planning framework, mentoring and job shadowing tied to individual and organization training needs. However, training will continue to be an ongoing need not just for the public service, but also for the other sectors of Nunavut's economy. All employers, in virtually all jurisdictions, are faced with the challenge of retention. As the major employer in Nunavut, the GN takes the matter of employee retention within the public service as a priority. The Department of Human Resources works collaboratively with all client departments, boards and agencies in order to develop the tools for addressing employee retention. Although significant efforts have been made because of the 2008 budget to freeze subsidized rents, the implementation of a household allowance and the salary increases from recent collective bargaining, implementation of a comprehensive plan to address employee retention will provide long-term benefit. With the development of an inclusive and broadly accepted strategy, stakeholders will have the most effective tools available to both retain and motivate their public servants.

Health and Social Services Human Resources

Nunavut competes for health care professionals in an extremely competitive labour market where other provincial, territorial and international jurisdictions are also vying for their services and talent.

The recruitment and retention of nurses remains a significant challenge. The Nunavut Nursing Recruitment and Retention Strategy provides a plan aimed at reducing the vacancy rate for indeterminate nursing positions across the territory and reducing reliance on agency nursing. Since the Strategy's implementation in August 2008, there have been 91 new indeterminate nursing hires. This has resulted in a net gain of 51 nurses, which has reduced the vacancy rate for nursing positions to 33% (down from 60% in July 2008). Over the past 20 months, agency nurse usage is less half what it was in September 2008. The Strategy also focuses on developing Inuit for positions in the nursing field. To date, there have been a total of 28 graduates from the Nunavut Arctic College nursing program and 12 of those graduates are Inuit.

Over the last several years the recruitment and retention of social workers has been increasingly challenging. Nunavut is one of the few jurisdictions that hire social worker generalists, which includes a combination of qualifications that makes it difficult to recruit qualified social workers. As of October 2010, only 25 of 46 social worker positions were filled with indeterminate staff. Although casuals are often used to fill vacant positions, short and long-term recruitment and retention efforts will be required to ensure there are is an adequate and stable number of social workers in the territory.

Physician recruitment and retention efforts are now focused on increasing the number of long-term family physicians practicing in Nunavut to provide consistent care for the population. In order to respond to the needs of the territory's growing population and provide increased in-territory services, the Department will require additional physician resources.

Acquisition of Goods and Services

The Government of Nunavut's procurement services continue to evolve and improve the level of service to all Government of Nunavut departments and the general public. Enhancements to the public website allow for electronic access and updates to public tenders. A new publication "Contracting for Consultant Services" guides staff in the proper methodology and procedures for procuring the services of consultants and contractors. Procurement and Contracting Services continues to provide training and support to all departments to ensure fair, ethical and transparent procurement and contracting.

Petroleum Products

The price that the Petroleum Products Division pays for fuel is affected by supply and demand on world markets. Over the past three years, fuel prices have been extremely volatile because of political instability, hurricanes, terrorism, and surging demand from developing countries.

In 2011-2012, the price of oil will continue to be a significant cost pressure on the Government of Nunavut. A large share of the budget will continue to be allocated, directly and indirectly, to purchasing a significant proportion of the oil that is consumed in Nunavut. The price of oil continues to be a significant factor in the long term fiscal planning based on the volatility of its pricing on the world market.

To mitigate the uncertainty of volatile pricing caused by fluctuations in the world market supply, Petroleum Products Division successfully implemented an early purchase initiative of Ultra Low Sulphur Diesel and Gasoline in the 2009 resupply season. Pre-purchasing Premium Gasoline this year did cost more than if it was purchased throughout the sealift season as the purchase happened to take place at a time when the gas price was near the upper end of its range for the season. How much more is debatable and dependant on the assumptions used. Lower pricing is, however, not the only reason for the gasoline pre-purchasing. Nunavut buys winter formulated gasoline, which is more difficult to obtain during the regular sealift season. As of the fall of 2010, the cost of oil had stabilized in the $70/80 U.S. per barrel range but experts are divided on how soon the markets will return to normal. This range is likely to persist if world economic news does not turn increasingly positive. Any positive news has been causing prices to spike upwards, but eventually the reality of high supplies usually results in prices dropping back down. Petroleum tank farm infrastructure is required to comply with the most recent environmental protection regulations.

Financial Resources

Understanding the operating environment of the Department of Finance necessitates identifying and recognizing the stakeholders and partners. These organizations include the federal government, provinces and other territories, designated Inuit organizations, communities, GN departments and agencies and most importantly, Nunavummiut.

The Government of Nunavut must continue its work to strengthen financial management, in part through the Multi-Year Comprehensive Funding Arrangement for Strengthening Financial Management and Networking Capacity with the Government of Canada. The funding under this arrangement focuses on improving network capacity across the GN, completing the Financial Administration and Procedures Manuals, creating a Financial Training Manual for Program Managers, further improving our financial reporting through the Public Accounts, and streamlining the financial systems.

The management of fiscal resources is linked to the availability of human resources. Training of Nunavummiut for future technical jobs in the field of finance, as well as the recruitment of technical personnel from other parts of Canada, have been identified as essential to the development of Nunavut.

Clarity is required on the relationship with the public agencies of the Government of Nunavut. This is being addressed through the introduction of new agreements, including comprehensive Memorandums of Understanding, coupled with policy-driven annual expectation letters to elevate the relationships with public agencies to a new level.

Over 90% of public funds in Nunavut are currently generated from the federal government either in the form of an unconditional grant or from a number of transfers for specific purposes. Federal spending restraint may well translate into pressure on the GN on these transfers, which will require renegotiation by 2013, while the federal government is in a deficit. The balance, own source revenue, is the result of internal efforts to raise funds through specific taxes, such as income taxes, and through general levies for specific services. The GN will operate under challenging fiscal and economic conditions in 2011-12. Private forecasters expect Nunavut's real economic growth to decelerate, from 13 percent in 2010 to 3 percent in 2011 and 2 percent in 2012, particularly as the initial boost to output from the start-up of the Meadowbank gold mine passes. Nunavut's rate of growth between 1999 and the recent global recession averaged 4 to 5 percent, higher than the 2 to 3 percent for Canada as a whole, suggesting 2011 and 2012 will be at best steady but unimpressive years economically.

The GN's fiscal arrangements should remain valid and grow slowly over the next few years, at least partially insulating the territory's economy from the lagging global recovery, and providing a steady if limited amount of fiscal room for government operations. Extraordinary spending to complete social-housing projects will present one major fiscal challenge in 2011-12, as will the fiscal sustainability of major entitlement programs and subsidies in the longer term. Nunavut's private sector is particularly vulnerable due to its intensive need for credit and capital to maintain its daily operations.

Housing

The first ever Nunavut wide Housing Needs Survey was commissioned by the Nunavut Housing Corporation in 2009. The survey included all residential dwellings, such as public housing, staff housing, other rental housing and privately owned housing.

Its initial findings, released in October 2010 revealed details of a known shortage of housing for Nunavummiut:

- 35 % of Nunavut homes are overcrowded;
- 23% of Nunavut homes are in need of major repairs;

- Approximately 4% of the population (1,220 individuals) is “homeless” - living temporarily in another person’s dwelling.

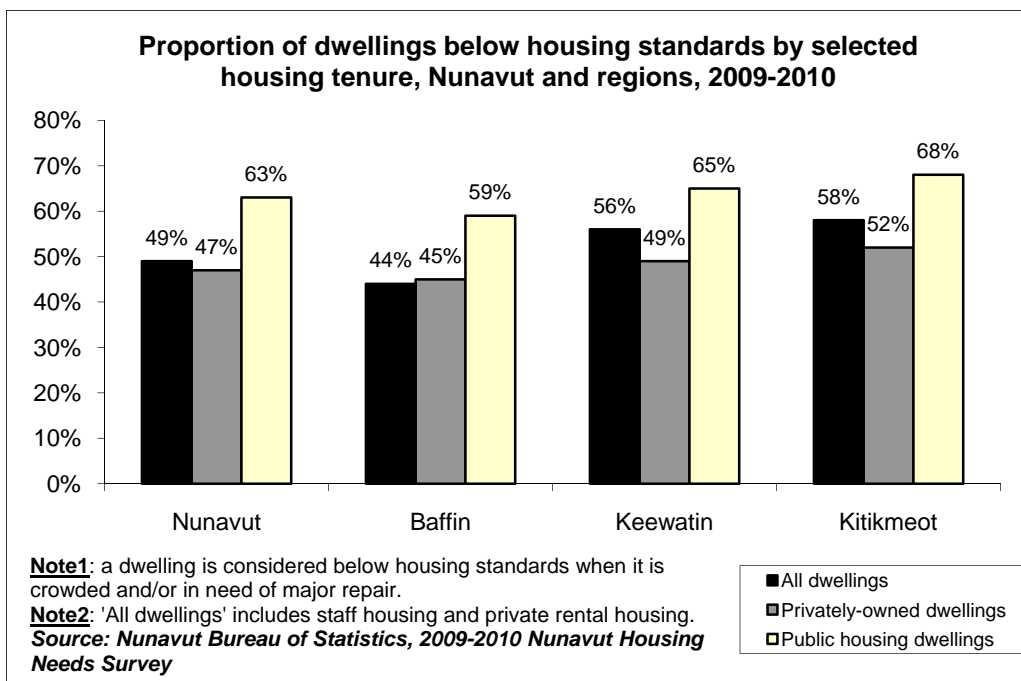

There are 9,400 dwellings in the 25 communities in Nunavut, of which 8,550 dwellings were occupied by usual residents. The remaining 850 dwellings were unoccupied or occupied temporarily by persons who considered their usual home elsewhere.

Of the dwellings occupied by usual residents:

- 4,400 or 51% are public housing units
- 1,880 or 22% are privately-owned dwellings
- 1,350 or 16% are government staff housing
- 930 or 11% were other types of rental housing

The survey found that almost half of occupied dwellings were below housing standards, meaning they were either crowded or in need of major repair or a combination of both.

- 63% of Public Housing units were found to be below housing standards;
- 47% of homeowner units were reported to be below housing standards;
- 22% of Government staff housing and 26% of other dwellings were deemed to be below housing standards.

Governance

Nunavut Land Claims Agreement

In 1993, the Inuit of Nunavut signed the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement (NLCA), which the Government of Nunavut remains committed to implementing fully. Effective implementation of this important agreement requires a close working relationship with Nunavut Tunngavik Incorporated (NTI), the Regional Inuit Organizations, and many other stakeholder groups.

The Government of Nunavut must work with NTI and Indian & Northern Affairs Canada to implement the recommendations of conciliator Thomas Berger for a new contract to implement the NLCA. Working closely with NTI, the aim is to obtain a renewed contract for the period 2003–2013 to fund the implementation obligations of the NLCA, including Article 23, which requires Inuit employment within government. Implementation of Article 23 is critical if the Territory is to meet the challenge of enabling and expanding participation of NLCA beneficiaries in the economy. It will also enhance the service provided by government and its responsiveness to the public it serves.

Consensus Government

A consensus government requires broad support for measures it proposes. The Premier and Ministers are required to take into account and respond to Members' concerns as they work through the legislative and budget processes. The system blends the principles of parliamentary democracy with the Inuit societal values of maximum cooperation, effective use of leadership resources and common accountability.

While elected officials work within a consensus system, the model used for Nunavut's public service is based primarily on the management structure found in the governments of the other northern territories and provinces. All departments will need to collaborate to balance consensus government with these existing systems of public administration. More work remains to be done to expand consensus models into the public service, where appropriate.

Intergovernmental Relations

Compared with 30 years ago and over the past 10 years, Nunavut is much more "connected" today with the rest of Canada and the world. Since the creation of Nunavut and the Government of Nunavut in 1999, the scope and pace of these interactions have been expanding exponentially.

It is important that Nunavut seize the opportunity to contribute to the development of national and international policies, especially in areas where our territory and its citizens have a unique interest or insight. The Government of Nunavut will need to prioritize the growing interactions and relations with other governments and organizations within Canada and beyond.

Inuit Employment Plan

INUIT EMPLOYMENT PLAN

Introduction

The Government of Nunavut since its beginnings has dedicated itself to achieving a representative qualified workforce. With the guidance of Article 23 of the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement (NLCA) the barriers that prevent Inuit from getting jobs in the Government have consistently been identified.

Progress has occurred by creating and enhancing opportunities for Inuit employment resulting in an achievement of a 45% increase in Inuit employees (on March 31, 2001 there were only 943 beneficiary employees compared to 1,369 employees on June 30, 2010). The key has been identifying understandable, efficient, and practical tools to facilitate increased Inuit hire by all departments and agencies.

In order to promote Inuit hire we have looked to the Inuit values of resourcefulness and self-reliance, we encourage a cross-cultural/technological workforce where one foot step is in the traditions and lifestyle that has existed for thousands of years and the other step reaches to the new technologies changing by the second and there is no break in stride between.

Our workforce comes from many cultures and works collectively towards the creation of a representative workforce in the spirit of Tamapta and building our future together.

The following table is a snapshot of the public service as of June 30, 2010, by occupational category:

June 30, 2010	Total Positions				Beneficiaries
	Total Positions	Vacancies	Filled	% Capacity	Hired	% IEP
Executive	36.0	5.0	31.0	86%	13.0	42%
Senior Management	152.0	29.0	123.0	81%	29.0	24%

Professional	1202.8	257.8	945.0	79%	233.0	25%
Paraprofessional	1328.8	336.2	992.6	75%	680.7	69%
Administrative Support	482.7	133.6	349.1	72%	317.6	91%
TOTALS	3632.2	847.5	2784.7	77%	1369.3	49%

Note: The table reports on established positions of all departments, the Nunavut Housing Corporation, Nunavut Arctic College and the Office of the Legislative Assembly. It does not report on casuals, the Qulliq Energy Corporation positions, the 28 Ministerial and Commissioner of Nunavut positions, 16 Sivuliqtiksat intern positions and third party funded positions in the Nunavut Arctic College.

Having an increasingly representative workforce creates a culturally aware and sensitive environment where Inuit values thrive, take root, and drive the legislative, policy, and service operations of government. In such an environment the use of Inuit language grows as the proportional representation more uniformly reflects Nunavut both community by community and classification level by classification level. Language is the vehicle of culture maintaining its accurate form and structure. The increase of language use has allowed for the strengthening of first language speakers while encouraging second language speakers to progress in their study and practice and make Nunavummiut feel comfortable and accommodated when accessing government services.

Barriers to Inuit hire are complex but are countered with optimism that the challenges can be overcome as childcare spaces increase, over-inflated and unnecessary job requirements are removed, greater recognition is given to comparable experience and qualifications, and more training and mentorship is provided in the workplace. In addition, the reasons for non-retention are not always negative as qualified and talented employees leave our employment with solid expertise and confidence to take on political careers or join the ranks of Nunavut non-governmental or private-sector organizations and businesses that have been growing both in numbers and capacity.

Human Resources has taken a developmental role in encouraging representation through promoting higher education and partnerships with excellent university and technical providers. These partnerships bring the best in technical training and internship with programs aimed at meeting the unique challenges and accessibility needs of Nunavut and incorporating to the highest degree possible training and mentorship reflecting Inuit Values.

Government Wide Plan

This section of the Business Plan will describe some of the Government of Nunavut initiatives undertaken towards achieving a representative workforce. These initiatives have been grouped into the following areas:

- Pre-employment Initiatives
- Employee Support
- Specific Departmental Initiatives

Carrying out these initiatives across the departments, boards, and agencies will result in the Government of Nunavut achieving its interim target of 53% by March 31, 2012. The following table identifies the interim targets by occupational category (see chart on next page).

March 31, 2012	Total Positions				Beneficiaries
	Total Positions	Vacancies	Filled	% Capacity	Hired	% IEP
Executive	35.0	1.0	34.0	97%	13.0	38%

Pre-employment Initiatives

Priority Hiring Policy

Since 2000, the Government of Nunavut has applied the Priority Hiring Policy. This policy gives priority consideration in the recruitment and selection of Government of Nunavut employees to NLCA beneficiaries. Those beneficiaries who meet the qualifications of a position are given priority over other applicants through the competition process. This policy applies to all job competitions in all departments, boards and agencies.

Summer Student Employment Equity Program

The Summer Student Employment Equity Program is available to all secondary and post secondary students living in Nunavut and studying in or outside Nunavut. This program is designed to provide opportunities for students to explore different types of work and is an integral part of the development of Nunavummiut youth to gain practical and meaningful working experience in the public service.

Casual Employment

The Government of Nunavut uses casual employment opportunities as a way to provide experience and training to employees who may be interested in full time indeterminate positions. In addition, full time casual employment is provided for students who are required to complete a practicum or who have a break from school.

Sivuliqtiksat Internship Program

Sivuliqtiksat Internship Program is designed to provide professional development opportunities for beneficiaries to take on leadership positions (Manager/Director level) and specialist positions that are unique to a department. This focus assists the Government of Nunavut in filling the gaps in the senior, middle, professional and paraprofessional occupational categories. The Government of Nunavut supports a total of 16 interns who after the internship period assume the target position. The location of the internship is based on the location of the target position. Orientation, mentoring, work exchanges and individual learning plans are components of the program.

Scholarships

The Government of Nunavut provides various scholarships to students pursuing higher education in both secondary and post secondary levels such as the scholarship for Technical Professional Studies or the High Achiever Computer Award for High School students through the Department of Community and Government Services. The Department of Education has compiled a list of which organizations, departments, institutions, business and others in Nunavut who are providing scholarships and awards to Nunavut Students so that interested students will know where and how to apply for funds to assist in their studies. This list will assist Nunavut students on better accessing much needed resources.

Kindergarten to Grade 12

The Education School Curriculum has been revised to emphasize cultural relevance and academic excellence and support the teaching and learning of Inuktitut in all its forms.

Piqqusilirivvik

The Government of Nunavut is establishing Piqqusilirivvik – an Inuit Cultural School, to foster traditional culture, promote and strengthen the traditional language and teach Inuit heritage and customs. The vision of Piqqusilirivvik provides a system that allows for the transfer of traditional culture, heritage, lifestyle and values taught in the traditional language and based on Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit principles.

Financial Assistance for Nunavut Students (FANS)

The Government of Nunavut demonstrates its commitment to further education by providing financial assistance to Nunavut students who are pursuing further education.

Nunavut Arctic College Programs

The Government of Nunavut, through Nunavut Arctic College continues to provide programs for higher learning. In partnership with other Government of Nunavut departments, Nunavut Arctic College has successfully delivered training programs that have resulted in employment opportunities for beneficiaries while successfully addressing a capacity gap within the public service such as the Nunavut Teacher Education Program and the Nunavut Nursing Program.

Promoting Employment Opportunities

The Government of Nunavut promotes employment opportunities by attending career fairs, trade shows and visiting high schools in the communities. An “Inuit in Nursing” campaign celebrating the success of Inuit working as Registered Nurses will be delivered to encourage Nunavummiut to consider a career in nursing. Recruitment videos have also been developed for specific occupations in the Government of Nunavut.

Employee Support

Training Opportunities

The Government of Nunavut encourages and supports employee training. A learning plan is used by employees, with the support of their supervisor, to identify areas for training and development. The Government of Nunavut provides a trainer’s allowance to any employee who is in a position where they are training another employee through on-the-job training. To receive the trainer’s allowance, a learning plan and a training agreement must be signed off by participants. It is a good way for the employer to demonstrate that it values the development of its employees.

The Department of Human Resources offers various learning and development opportunities including courses on Inuktitut (first and second language speakers), cultural orientation, computer literacy, financial management, supervisory skills, and human resources management. In addition, the department offers a Nunavut Advanced Management Diploma Program, which is a ten module program delivered in collaboration with Saint Mary’s University, as well as the Financial Management Certification Program, which is comprised of six modules and reflect the current financial procedures used across the Government of Nunavut. Furthermore, the department offers a Human Resources Management Diploma Program, Administrative Professional Diploma Program, and Supervisory Diploma Program.

In 2009-2010, the Government of Nunavut established a specialized training fund to develop technical and job specific competencies through individualized training programs designed to address the unique learning needs associated with particular departments, divisions, or positions – each program is designed and delivered by the employing department/agency. The Department of Education is developing and implementing a training strategy for Career Development Officers with the plan to enhance the training strategy to include the Income Support Workers to equip them with the ability to counsel Income Support Recipients.

Internships

The Government of Nunavut has undertaken some internship programs that provide on the job training to beneficiary employees. These vary in length of time depending on the position and the skill level of the individual. This includes the Department of Finance interns as well as the Conservation Officer Training Program through the Department of Environment.

Mentorship

Employees across the Government of Nunavut are encouraged to use mentors. Mentors for example are provided to nurses graduating from the Nunavut Nursing Program. The Government of Nunavut has an agreement with the Canadian Executive Service Organization (CESO) to provide Volunteer Advisors on an as needed basis.

Orientation

Orientations are available to for all employees and are designed to provide a general orientation to the Government of Nunavut. More specific orientations are provided in the individual workplaces. In addition, cultural orientations are offered across the Government of Nunavut. Topics include the history of Nunavut, Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit principles, traditional Inuit activities etc.

Education Leave

The Government of Nunavut supports its employees to continually improve their skills. The Education Leave directive in place allows employees to take leave for educational pursuits. This provides employees with the opportunity to take advantage of external training. Employees must be in indeterminate positions and have been employed at least 3 years before they can apply for education leave. Education leave can be approved for short or long term, and with or without financial assistance.

Specific Departmental Initiatives

All of the Government of Nunavut's departments and agencies utilize the tools detailed above to increase Inuit employment. However, each retains a level of autonomy to develop their own tools and initiatives to further Inuit employment to meet their respective needs. The following is a summary of these initiatives broken down by department.

Department of Executive and Intergovernmental Affairs

The department will participate directly in two government wide Inuit employment initiatives, the Labour Force Analysis and the Communications Strategy.

Nunavut Kiglisiniaqtiit (Nunavut Bureau of Statistics) will analyze and disseminate Statistics Canada data on Nunavut's labour force. A monthly report is produced on the latest data available from Statistics Canada's labour force survey detailing employment statistics in Nunavut. The Labour Force survey tracks employment by Inuit and non-Inuit in the 10 largest communities.

EIA Communications is the central agency for providing communications support to the line departments and government wide coordination. The division will assist the Department of Human Resources in the development of a communication strategy on the implementation of the Government of Nunavut Inuit Employment Plan. It will study the current structure and protocols for communications work and make recommendations for changes, to work towards the goal of creating a two-way dialogue between the government and the public.

In addition to participating in government wide initiatives, the department will continue its own efforts to increase beneficiary employment, especially for management categories.

- A Government Liaison Officer will be the public's central point-of-contact with our government. These individuals will ensure that government services can be more easily accessed in every community. The demands of these positions will require that they are staffed primarily by local beneficiaries.
- The Inuit Language Protection Act and the Official Languages Act will require significant increases in the ability of staff to use the Inuit Language in the workplace. As part of its commitment to building capacity amongst senior management, the department will make first-language and second-language Inuit Language training available to all departmental employees and to executive management from across the Government of Nunavut.
- The department will closely re-examine all of its job descriptions before staffing positions -- with the involvement of the entire Senior Management Committee and the Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit Coordinator. The job descriptions will be reviewed to ensure that they do not contain inflated educational or experience requirements and to ensure that services can be delivered in the appropriate languages at all levels.

Department of Finance

The department has a number of initiatives that will increase Inuit employment, which include:

- Hiring beneficiaries through the Summer Student Employment Program, so that students can determine if a career in finance fits their career aspirations and to develop their workplace skills;
- Hiring beneficiaries as casual employees to provide them with an opportunity to experience first-hand what a career in finance could be and if they would like to pursue a career path in this area;
- Identifying high potential beneficiaries and "streaming" them into an intern position; and
- Attending high school career fairs to raise the visibility of a career in finance.

Department of Human Resources

The Department of Human Resources recently completed a review of its structure and core functions and is currently implementing an organizational foundation that will enable it to build a progressive Human Resources Department that effectively and efficiently provides services to client departments. As a result the department has revitalized internal Inuit Employment Planning efforts and will integrate Inuit employment as a priority for every division by shifting focus and resources from a single Inuit employment planning division to all divisions. This will effectively transition the department from monitoring Inuit Employment numbers to developing tools, approaches to assist GN departments, boards, and agencies in making representative government a reality. Additionally, the department will establish an Inuit Employment Steering Committee. The purpose of this committee will be to provide leadership and guidance to the Department of Human Resources and other government departments regarding Inuit employment planning. The Committee will report directly to the Deputy Minister of Human Resources will work with other government departments to utilize the GN business planning cycle as the main IEP planning process over the three year expenditure forecast period. As a result of the reorganization there is more opportunity to develop Inuit staff through leadership development, succession planning and mentoring.

Other Departmental initiatives include:

- Accessing government-wide initiatives such as the Summer Student Employment Equity program and the Sivuliqtiksat program.
- Participating in training and development programs that will develop and enhance skill sets.
- Offering term positions when filling vacant positions if beneficiary candidates are not successful in the recruitment process.
- Encouraging beneficiaries to apply for internship positions.
- Creating a learning environment that focuses on career progression and staff development of current employees.
- Providing on the job training, including the use of training plans, reassignment of duties and providing opportunities to cross train among various positions in the department.

Department of Justice

In the 2011-12 fiscal year, the Department of Justice will be participating in two GN wide initiatives and several complementary department-specific initiatives to work towards achieving an average of 51% Inuit representation by 2012.

Working with the Department of Human Resources, the Department of Justice currently supports the development of three Sivuliqtiksat interns into management positions. They will be working towards completing their learning plans to assume their targeted Middle and Senior Management duties and responsibilities.

In the meantime, we will continue to apply for Sivuliqtiksat positions as they become available, and have already targeted two positions that we are hoping to fill with Sivuliqtiksat Interns.

The second GN wide initiative that we are participating in is the Inuit Employment Plan for the Government of Nunavut that will be active from 2010 to 2013. This plan will be developed collaboratively with input from all departments. The role of the Department of Justice will be spearheaded by the Corporate Services Division, working with each of the Senior Managers.

Each and every summer the department participates in the Summer Student Employment Equity Program. We routinely hire 10-12 students into positions that allow them to see the type of work our department does and that experience helps them determine if they would like to pursue a career in a Justice-related field. This summer the department will continue with this initiative.

There are two pieces of legislation that will have an impact on initiatives that promote Inuit Employment and those are the recently passed Inuit Language Protection Act (ILPA) and a new Public Service Act that is currently being worked on. To meet the requirements of the ILPA, the Department of Justice has built a business case to request four new positions that are specifically Inuktitut in one way or another. The new Public Service Act (PSA) will incorporate Inuit societal values consistent with Article 23 of the Nunavut Land Claim Agreement. Both the Legislation and the Legal & Constitutional Law Divisions within the Department of Justice are working on the PSA through drafting the legislation and the regulations, as well as providing advice as particular issues arise.

There are several specific initiatives in the department, some new and some ongoing from previous years. They are as follows:

- Streamlining the Priority Hiring Policy within our department

Throughout the Government of Nunavut, all departments have been given the responsibility to ensure that the Priority Hiring Policy is being adhered to. The Department of Justice will continue with ensuring that artificial barriers such as overly inflated education and experience requirements are not present when sending a position to competition with the following activities:

- All job descriptions are reviewed by a special committee consisting of the Deputy Head, Assistant Deputy Minister and a Human Resources staff at bi-weekly meetings. This allows for third party review of the Knowledge, Skills and Abilities section of the job description. By having the job description reviewed by people who have not participated in writing the job description, the likelihood of overly inflated barriers making it to the competition stage is greatly reduced. This “fresh set of eyes” approach is very beneficial and has been quite useful in eliminating these barriers in the past years when the JDs were reviewed by the Senior Management Committee. New job descriptions will continue through the review process with the Senior Management Committee.
- Specific training is required to ensure that all individuals involved in staffing decisions are aware of, and accurately apply, the Priority Hiring Policy. It has been mandated through the department that all employees sitting on hiring panels must have taken the “How to be a Panel Member” training offered through the Staffing Division of the Department of Human Resources. This ensures that every hiring panel is educated on their responsibility as a panel member, and will contribute to better IEP hiring practices within our department.

- Invest in human capital to improve effectiveness of the workforce

- The department currently has a trainee who is funded internally through the departmental budget. The position of Manager, Financial Services currently has a trainee who is learning the position and will be appointed upon the successful completion of the learning plan.
- The performance review process will continue this fiscal year. Once the review is completed, a training plan and a work plan will be developed for each employee. This will eliminate any lack of direction that the employee has, and will continue to ensure that the employee has the skills required to perform the duties of their position
- The department has formed a partnership with the Canadian Executive Service Organization (CESO) to provide individual mentors to six staff who have a high potential. These CESO mentors are building managerial capacity in our employees by enhancing skills, competencies and knowledge necessary for effective governance; supporting the development of policies and procedures that improve effective governance and respect for the centrality of tradition and culture; and are helping our staff to build strategic leadership capacity that focuses on the needs of communities and community members.
- The CESO organization will also be utilized to provide a talent identification and development program to employees within our department.
- To benefit the divisions that primarily deal with legal matters (Legal Registries, Legislation, and Legal & Constitutional Law), a Legal Assistant program is being sought out to develop administrative staff into paraprofessionals. The ultimate goal will be to develop employees to have the skills of a paralegal. The participants will also receive support from the CESO organization, either through individual mentors or by group training and support sessions.

- Promote the Corrections Division as an employer to recruit Inuit staff

The department continues to be faced with the challenge of recruiting Inuit in this Territory's highly competitive labour market. One of the problems facing the department, as well as the rest of the government, is to attract Inuit who do not necessarily see the public service as a career of choice. An additional challenge to the Department of Justice is recruiting Inuit to work in the territorial capital where most of our correctional institutions are currently located. In order to overcome these challenges we are taking on the following initiatives:

- Various Corrections staff will visit high schools, job fairs and trade shows to educate students and the public about possible careers in Justice, and specifically the healing role that our corrections staff plays in the rehabilitation of offenders. By promoting this division to youth, it will entice them to at least consider a career in Corrections, and even encourage them to obtain post-secondary training

- in areas related to Corrections. Ultimately, this will begin to build future employees for the Corrections division and the department as a whole.
- Active and regular recruitment of employees for positions within the correctional facilities through an open ad for casual employment. Through this means employees can gain experience in our facilities' and when a position becomes available, they will have the skills to win the competition. Also, they have an opportunity to see various career paths that are open to them within the Corrections Division and the department as a whole.
 - Lead a campaign directed at the communities of Nunavut to make them aware of positions within the Corrections Division. This includes sending job ads to the Hamlets for posting and distribution, making radio announcements and doing interviews to promote employment as a Correctional Officer or Youth Officer.

- Foster and sustain an environment attractive to Inuit

The department realizes how important it is to foster and promote an environment that is attractive to Inuit individuals. Guided by Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit, the department will work towards providing employees with the direction and tools they need to perform the work of the organization to the very best of their ability. Actions to support staff include:

- Illiniit, the departmental Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit committee, provides advice, direction, and assistance to the department on all matters involving the use of Inuktitut in the workplace, the incorporation of Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit into the department's programs and services and will offer various training and workshops. During this fiscal year the Illiniit Committee will be regrouping and opening its membership to new members, and two new initiatives will be undertaken this year. The committee is working on establishing a support network within the department for employees who are going through difficult times. Illiniit will also coordinate two Inuktitut as a First Language courses – they will coordinate a second offering of level one, as well as offering level 2 for the first time.
- Foster a community spirit and a sense of belonging by offering employees the opportunity to become involved outside the formal workplace in a variety of recreational and volunteer activities. This is mainly done through IQ days developed and held by our Illiniit Committee. These IQ days have proven to be very successful as many employees participate in these cultural days, and continuously provide positive feedback.
- Encourage all staff, both current and new, to take advantage of the cultural orientation training and Inuktitut in the Workplace language training offered by the Department of Human Resources. This promotes understanding of the Inuit culture, which facilitates the use of IQ principles in the workplace.
- Offer and encourage all supervisors and managers to take training that addresses such topics as cultural diversity, good management practices and coaching skills.

- Their understanding of the benefits and rewards of a representative workforce helps create a supportive work environment that enhances the potential of all employees.
- Emphasize existing quality of work-life initiatives as effective practices that advance the interests of our workforce. These initiatives include programs such as adjustment of shift schedules to reflect the lifestyles of employees (flextime, compressed work weeks, and so on).
 - Ensure that correctional facilities offer a safe and productive work environment. As employees spend a significant portion of their lives in the facilities' surroundings, keeping workspaces pleasant conveys a sense of pride and respect that helps keep employees on board.
 - Promote quality of work life as an integral part of daily operations
 - The Department of Justice will be fostering initiatives that improve the quality of work life. As in other public services, several principal factors are driving changes in GN employee perceptions and the need to encourage quality of work initiatives and flexibilities. Some of these are:
 - The nature of work and the workplace are changing dramatically due to technology that produces vast amounts of data along with the ability to communicate more rapidly and at more levels than ever before;
 - Expectations of the workforce reflect generational and cultural differences in attitudes about work and careers;
 - Managers are asked to focus on the work team's ability to respond to changing circumstances and workload requirements;
 - Managers are asked to view employees as human capital with a corresponding investment in employee growth and development.
 - Leadership is taking forms other than the classic supervisory and management functions. This will include mentoring and encouraging employees to learn and develop their skills.

In the face of these influencing factors, the department will:

- Research options to effectively compete with other employers in Nunavut for representative workers. This might include flexible work arrangements, support and services for childcare and eldercare, benefits tailored to meet employees' needs and a safe and healthy work environment.
- Recognize success. We will identify and reward those who contribute to building and maintaining a representative, high-quality workforce, ultimately resulting in better service to the public.
- The Department will ensure that the use of all of Nunavut's languages is encouraged in the workplace. Traditionally, some individuals have been hesitant to speak the Inuit language in the workplace – its use will be actively encouraged by supervisors.

- Approximately every quarter we hold a Welcoming Gathering where we introduce new employees and welcome them to our Department. It is a time for people to get to know each other and make the workplace an inviting place to be.

Department of Culture, Languages, Elders and Youth

The Department of Culture, Language, Elders and Youth is committed to achieving a representative level of Inuit employment. Due to the very nature of the department's mandate, many of the positions dictate that Inuit language speaking employees fill the positions. This increases the probabilities of hiring beneficiaries. This is especially true in the Official Languages Branch, the Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit Division, the Elders and Youth Division, Taiguusiliuqtiit and Piqqusilirivvik.

In regards to the other remaining divisions (Corporate Services, Sport and Recreation, Culture and Heritage, and Policy and Planning) within the Department, the use of GN wide programs such as Sivuliqtiksats, Mentorship and Job Training initiatives will be fully utilized to ensure that entry level personnel have the opportunity to advance in the workplace.

The department is involved in various initiatives that focus on increasing Inuit employment within the department:

- The hiring of beneficiaries into vacant positions.
- Reviewing all old and new job descriptions to remove systemic barriers.
- Working with Elder Advisors in the workplace.
- Implementing the Inuit Language Protection Act and the Official Languages Act.
- Establishing Taiguusiliuqtiit.
- Development of Piqqusilirivvik programs and the hiring of staff.
- The promotion of professional development, training and mentorship.

Department of Education

The Department of Education has been very successful meeting its Inuit employment targets in the paraprofessional (target: 62% beneficiaries; actual: 89%) and administrative support (target: 90% beneficiaries; actual: 97%) categories. However, before the department can increase its overall level of Inuit employment, significant progress will have to be made towards increasing the number of Inuit teachers (professional positions) and middle managers.

With this in mind, the department has developed the Qalattuq 10 year Teacher Education Strategy, in conjunction with Nunavut Arctic College, Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. and the Nunavut Teachers' Association. The strategy is designed to help address the current shortfall in the number of teachers who can teach in Inuit languages, as well as identifying new approaches to recruit, educate and retain more Inuit educators. With many Inuit teachers expected to retire over the next few years, increasing the number of Inuit teachers is expected to be a significant challenge. The strategy also provides training and certification opportunities for roles such as School Community Counselors and Student Support Assistants. In order to meet the requirements of the new Education Act and the Inuit Language Protection Act and ensure the success of Bilingual Education, many more Inuit teachers will need to graduate from the Teacher Education Program in the near future.

The department is also leading government-wide IEP education initiatives in both the K-12 and adult post secondary systems. On the adult side, the Nunavut Adult Learning Strategy, Nunavut Community Skills Inventory System and the Nunavut Trade School are expected to improve adult education and employment opportunities for Inuit throughout Nunavut over the long term. Future success is dependent upon linking separate initiatives such as the government-wide IEP, the Nunavut Adult Learning Strategy, management internship and other professional development programs in order to avoid duplication and maximize return on investment. Within the K-12 system, new initiatives such as increasing high school program options are providing young adults with more career opportunities.

Other initiatives include the Educational Leadership program for teachers and principals in Nunavut. This program is mandatory for Nunavut principals and is open to teachers who are interested in the possibility of taking on a variety of leadership roles. This includes many Inuit educators. The Master in Education program, in partnership with the University of Prince Edward Island and St. Francis Xavier University recently graduated 21 Inuit participants. Many of these graduates remain employed with the department. It is hoped that their success will encourage other Inuit to complete the program. The program focuses on developing educational leadership with the hope that the department will retain these individuals in supervisory positions. The Masters program will be offered again in October 2010.

Other initiatives are underway in the department. A multi-year training strategy for Career Development Officers (CDOs) leading towards a Nunavut and possibly international certification, is currently being developed by the department and the Canadian Career Development

Department of Health and Social Services

The Department is committed to providing Nunavummiut with training and education opportunities in health and social services careers. In support of that commitment, the Department continues to work with Nunavut Arctic College by supporting and funding certificate, diploma and degree programs that lead to rewarding career opportunities in the health care and social services sector.

In addition, the Health and Social Services Careers Partnership Committee, which is co-chaired by the Deputy Minister of HSS and the President of Nunavut Arctic College, was implemented in 2009. This committee meets regularly in an effort to improve the delivery of health and social services training and education for Nunavummiut, with particular emphasis placed on efforts to support Inuit.

Programs planned for delivery in 2011-2012 include:

- Nunavut Nursing Baccalaureate program (Iqaluit)

- Human Services Diploma program – consisting of social work and alcohol and drug counselor streams (Cambridge Bay)
- Maternal Care Worker / Midwifery program (Cambridge Bay)
- Community Health Representative certificate program (Iqaluit and on-line based training)

The Department also provides funding support for the Foundation Studies program being offered by Nunavut Arctic College in Iqaluit and Cambridge Bay in 2011-2012. This program prepares students for enrollment in Nunavut Arctic College programs, primarily through studies in math, English and science.

A new “training ladders” initiative was also recently completed and implemented in collaboration with Nunavut Arctic College. This program will enable Inuit to achieve higher education levels at the diploma and degree level. Common course modules, course transferability and “step-in / step-out” options are elements being incorporated into current program delivery models.

Other proactive departmental efforts related to Inuit employment include:

- Providing employment for graduates of Nunavut Arctic College health and social services related training programs, such as nurses, midwives, mental health workers, community therapy assistants and home and community care workers
- Providing scholarships and bursaries for nursing students
- Providing a new bilingual counselor for Inuit nursing students
- Exam preparation/study skills workshops for Nunavut Nursing Program students writing the national Registered Nurse Examination
- Providing mentors for nurses graduating from the Nunavut Nursing Program
- As part of the implementation of the Nunavut Nursing Recruitment and Retention Strategy, an “Inuit in Nursing” campaign was implemented that celebrates the success of Inuit working as Registered Nurses. The campaign also encourages Nunavummiut to consider nursing as a career
- Providing mentoring support for new community therapy assistants
- A revamped flexible delivery format for Community Health Representatives who are working and living in communities across Nunavut
- Attending community career fairs to promote health and social services job opportunities

The Department is also finalizing a comprehensive human resources framework to guide the development of an overall Health and Social Services Human Resources Strategy. The Strategy, which will be implemented in 2011-2012, includes specific initiatives that are designed to further the recruitment, development and retention of Inuit employees.

Department of Environment

The department is committed to increasing Inuit employment and has developed a number of initiatives which include:

Inuit Employment Plan

- The department sees summer/seasonal positions as an important gateway to further employment with the department. As much as possible, we fill these positions with beneficiaries of the NLCA. During the summer of 2010, 12 of the 18 filled summer/seasonal positions were staffed with beneficiaries.
- The Department of Environment established an in-house Conservation Officer Trainee Program to develop Inuit Conservation Officers.
- The first full cycle of the Conservation Officer Trainee Program has been completed and evaluated. The department is revising the program based on the evaluation, and intends to restart it in 2011-2012
- DOE has created and staffed a regional manager trainee position in the Kivalliq. On completion of training the beneficiary in this position will be able to assume the position of regional manager.
- Conservation officers regularly visit schools and attend career fairs to raise the visibility of a career in wildlife and environmental management.

Department of Community and Government Services

The department has identified means to help attract and retain Inuit staff.

Factors involved include the need for a strong appreciation and implementation of Inuit Societal Values in the workplace and matching these values with the business requirements of government. This focuses on promoting staff training and development, and linking employees and business requirements through work plans that are designed to prioritize service first. Identifying and catering to the needs of Nunavummiut should assist with this goal.

The department is committed to identifying intern positions that qualify under the Management Development Program that seeks to develop internship opportunities with support and funding by Department of Human Resources.

As a priority, the department has created four positions as an internal internship in our headquarters and regional offices and graduated four interns and one apprenticeship. The department is also participating with Career Trade Shows through Regional Chambers of Commerce travelling throughout Nunavut communities to promote jobs to Nunavut beneficiaries.

The department is also taking direct action to assist in addressing the need for more beneficiaries in technical and professional positions. A two-year Co-op program was funded and created through Nunavut Arctic College to train beneficiaries for informatics positions. This program has been extended for one cycle (two years) which will end in year 2011. Senior management made the commitment to extend the program for a further two years in efforts to improvement Inuit representation in the Government of Nunavut Informatics workforce, as at the time of completion of the Business Plan there are 20 vacancies in Informatics across the territory. Funding was identified from person years within Informatics that could not be staffed. A number of the vacant positions within Informatics will be deemed to be intern positions. Creating intern opportunities is to be supported with the development of a strong culture of coaching and mentoring and knowledge transfer by seasoned employees to assist the learning of interns in their growth into the work of the organization. During the interim, fifteen or more contractors will continue to assist Government Informatics to maintain operations.

Additionally, the department will work with senior officials at Department of Human Resources to ensure meaningful employment opportunities on a full time casual basis for each student's practicum. Students will have to achieve a minimum acceptable grade point average of 60% overall each year. Upon successful completion of the program of studies, a number of the certified students will be hired by the department. Two student placements will be held for interested candidates from Gjoa Haven and Igloolik (a total of four students). Upon successful completion, the desire is that one successful candidate will be hired in each Community (Gjoa Haven & Igloolik). The department will work with the Department of Education and High School Principals to identify candidates.

To complement the foregoing Inuit employment planning initiative, the department launched the Technical Professional Studies Scholarships to help to address priority capacity areas. The annual Technical/Professional Studies Scholarship is provided to high achieving students studying in the field of engineering, informatics, community planning, and business studies and college programs of fire fighting, training and prevention and land administration for which there is an ongoing need for accredited and trained staff. This is to encourage students to stay in school to completion. The Computer Award Program has been delivered for the past six (6) years and it is hoped that in conjunction with Department of Education officials and the foregoing programs the Government of Nunavut will see an early awareness of career opportunities that hold potential for Inuit staff in Informatics Services and other professional and technical fields.

We are also identifying opportunities for on-the-job training and mentoring of existing staff. We will also provide annual scholarships to high achieving students studying in areas for which there is high need for staff. This is to encourage students to stay in school to completion and to supplement their training with experience. To assist in coordinating these training related initiatives, the department created a Departmental Training Committee. This committee is responsible for the development of an internal training program for the department. This will be achieved by a prioritization of departmental needs in conjunction with training programs available. From there, funds will be identified to facilitate training participation. The committee will report through its members to each division to ensure identified training is consistent with departmental needs as well as Government of Nunavut policies and Article 23 of the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement. Success in this strategy will also depend on an internal culture of coaching and mentoring by seasoned staff to assist newly trained staff with applying their new knowledge to the work of the department.

The department recognizes achievement of Article 23 will take time and deliberate action to ensure successful, long-term employees represent the demographics of Nunavut.

Department of Economic Development and Transportation

The department has developed the following initiatives and activities to increase Inuit employment:

- employing summer students to provide valuable work experience to youth for future employment endeavors; six Inuit summer students were employed in 2010-2011
- mentoring and training beneficiaries through on-job-training as well through casual employment opportunities
- ensuring that there is an Inuit language speaking departmental representative on screening & hiring panels
- employing the assistance of Canadian Executive Services Organization for mentoring and development of beneficiary senior managers
- implementing a mandatory Performance Management Program to engage and empower employees
- continue to develop and submit proposals for Sivuliqtiksat Internships through the Department of Human Resources; three interns graduated in 2010-2011, and in 2011-2012 the department will work to return to the target of three active internships.

Assembly Operations

Canada's Westminster system of parliamentary democracy requires a rigorous separation of powers between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government. Fostering effective and collegial working relationships with the executive branch of government, while ensuring the independence of the Legislative Assembly, is essential. Nunavut's consensus style of governance calls upon us to serve Members in a manner that respects the character of the institution. We acknowledge that, by its very nature, the Legislative Assembly is a political arena in which diverse positions and perspectives are articulated.

The operations of the Office of the Legislative Assembly are established pursuant to the Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act. This line of business supports the primary purpose of the Assembly - a functional legislative process. Consistent with the governance traditions of Northern Canada and established principles of parliamentary democracy, we work to ensure that the business of the House is conducted in compliance with the Rules of the Legislative Assembly, the Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act and certain statutory requirements of the Nunavut Act. We provide support to the Office of the Speaker and Members in the Chamber, committees, caucuses and constituencies.

The Standing and Special Committees of the Legislative Assembly fulfill important functions in the legislative process. The review of proposed legislation ensures that Bills are scrutinized before becoming law. Public hearings provide an opportunity for individuals and organizations to express their views and concerns on matters of public policy.

Committees perform an oversight function with respect to departmental expenditures and initiatives and can undertake detailed examinations of different subject areas. Caucus meetings allow Members to address matters related to the scheduling of House business, in addition to other issues that arise. Members are a direct link in their constituencies between Nunavummiut and their government. Members advocate for the needs of their communities and articulate the concerns and aspirations of their constituents.

- Continue to identify ways in which the Tribunal can be more effective in publicizing its presence and purpose across Nunavut to maintain or increase intake.

Legal Services Board (Contribution from Directorate Branch)

The Legal Services Board (LSB) is established under the Legal Services Act, and is responsible for ensuring that all eligible persons in Nunavut receive legal aid and related services. The board is also responsible for overseeing the operation of the following regional clinics: the Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik Law Centre and the High Arctic Office in the Baffin Region, the Keewatin Legal Services Centre Society in the Kivalliq Region and the Kitikmeot Law Centre in the Kitikmeot Region. These clinics provide legal services, court worker services, referral services and public legal education and information in their respective regions.

The Access to Justice Agreement, which governs federal and territorial funding, requires the board to provide legal aid services, public legal education and information, and Inuit court worker programs and services.

Objectives

- To provide quality and timely legal services to all eligible persons.
- To develop high quality systems for the provision of legal services.
- To develop and co-ordinate territorial and local programs aimed at reducing and preventing the occurrence of legal problems and increasing knowledge of the law, legal processes and the administration of justice.

Programs	Budget ($000)	2010-11	2011-12	2012-13	2013-14
Legal Services Board		5,807	8,307	8,307	8,307
The Nunavut Legal Services Board provides criminal and family legal aid services through a mixed judicare/clinic/staff lawyer system to the people of Nunavut.
Total, Legal Support Services		5,807	8,307	8,307	8,307

Priorities (2010-11)

- Continue to work with the Keewatin Legal Services Centre in Rankin Inlet to obtain and move into larger office space.

Status: A new commercial building is under construction in Rankin Inlet, and Keewatin Legal Services Centre has secured a lease with the owners. The clinic anticipates moving into the larger space in the spring of 2011.

- Review the office space needs for the Kitikmeot Law Centre and Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik.

Status: Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik secured some much needed additional office space in their current building (the Arnakallak Building in Iqaluit) in the fall of 2010. They assumed control of half the new space, and anticipate taking possession of the remainder in the next few months.

Kitikmeot Law Centre in Cambridge Bay is in dire need of additional office space, with 5 lawyers, 1 courtworker, and 1 administrative staff person working in an office that can reasonably accommodate 5. The Legal Services Board is working with the clinic to identify and assess viable alternatives for obtaining office space as quickly as possible.

- Continue to improve the framework for the Courtworker program.

Status: Several new courtworkers have joined legal aid, primarily in the Baffin communities. Currently a senior staff lawyer is serving as the Interim Courtworker Coordinator and she has been successful at obtaining additional training monies for the courtworkers. LSB hopes to advertise for a Courtworker Coordinator by the end of 2010, with plans to have the Interim Courtworker Coordinator mentor the successful candidate for a period of time. Once this key position is filled, further development of the courtworker program will continue.

- Assess the viability of various alternatives to address the needs of family law clients.

Status: LSB has hired a new family lawyer (in Iqaluit) and continues to advertise for a second family lawyer for Rankin Inlet. LSB has also submitted funding proposals to increase the number of family lawyers going forward. Additionally, LSB is working on obtaining funding to pilot a family law courtworker position to assist with the delivery of family legal services. LSB continues to assess the viability of a stand alone family law clinic at Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik.

- Assess the impact that changes in the numbers of criminal charges being laid, the increasing severity of those charges, and the increasing number of criminal appeals is having on the delivery of LSB's criminal legal services.

Status: LSB completed an extensive budgeting process earlier this year which explored the growing costs of the criminal defence practice. This analysis resulted in budget submissions to the GN to meet the growing needs in this area by creating new criminal positions in all 3 regions. This year, LSB has added 1 criminal lawyer in Cambridge Bay, 2 criminal lawyers in Iqaluit, and continues to advertise for a senior criminal practitioner for Iqaluit. The growing crime rate in Nunavut has been well documented by Statistics Canada, the RCMP and the Nunavut Court of Justice. LSB is working hard to be proactive to meet the anticipated demands of this growing trend.

- Develop a compensation package for staff lawyers that is both competitive and reflective of the services they provide.

Status: In March 2010 the LSB Board of Directors approved a fully revised and competitive compensation and benefit package for staff lawyers. Virtually all of these changes have been implemented, except for the health coverage which required additional research. LSB anticipates this final benefit will be implemented before the end of 2010.

- Develop financial procedures that will support the transition to more internal financial control for the organization.

Status: LSB has worked closely with the GN Departments of Justice and Finance to create clearer communications and understanding of LSB's financial situation. Both Departments gave significant support to LSB this year in completing several budget submissions on behalf of legal aid. LSB continues to work with the Department of Finance to restructure the coding allocations for our accounts in the GN system which is intended to provide better information to the organization for financial planning and reporting. LSB also undertook several policy initiatives in the spring to address internal issues such as financial eligibility for legal aid applicants. LSB is also working on revisions to their Contribution Agreement with the Department of Justice which we hope to submit for their review before the end of 2010. Once that process is complete, LSB plans to work with the regional clinics revising and standardizing their contribution agreements with LSB. Additionally, LSB hopes to fill the Financial Manager position before the end of 2010.

Priorities (2011-12)

- Develop protocols for specialized areas of practice such as child representation, and mediation.
- Assess the demands on the civil/poverty law program and work to ensure appropriate resources are in place to address those demands.
- Conduct a comprehensive structural/operational review of LSB, including its Board, operations, and financial protocols.
- Review the administrative needs of the regional clinics and work with them to acquire the resources to meet those needs.
- Develop a complete list of policies and a Board policy manual to provide clear direction for the clinic operations.
- Continue development on the Courtworker program to increase the capacity of the courtworkers, offer them better support, and overall improve the effectiveness of the program.
- Continue to work with Kitikmeot Law Centre to obtain additional office space in Cambridge Bay.
- Continue to work with the GN Departments of Justice and Finance to enhance LSB's capacity for financial planning and reporting.

Priorities (2012-13)

- Investigate independent society status for LSB.
- Develop a 5 year strategic exercise for staff and Board, to ensure common goals, and vision for the provision for legal services in the territory.
- Develop an appropriate committee structure comprised of Board, staff, and community members at large to address ongoing issues of concern with legal services.

INTRODUCTION

The Nunavut Housing Corporation (NHC) is a public agency of the Government of Nunavut (GN), created through the Nunavut Legislature by the Nunavut Housing Corporation Act. As such an agency, the NHC is at arm's-length from the GN, and its operating boundaries are set out in Part IX of the Financial Administration Act, the section specifically devoted to public agencies.

The NHC reports to the Legislative Assembly of Nunavut, Executive Council, and to Nunavummiut through its President and the responsible Minister. This approach allows the Minister to maximize the effectiveness of the Corporation for the present and future benefits of Nunavummiut.

The advantages of being a stand-alone corporation include:

- The ability to enter into funding partnerships independently, principally with the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC), outside of the GN's financial structure. This means that Nunavut's transfer payments from the federal government are not affected by the funding the NHC receives.
- The ability to carry over funds from one year to the next, ensuring funds from all sources designated for housing initiatives remain dedicated to housing solutions.
- The stewardship of funds appropriated for Capital and Operating and Maintenance, which gives the NHC full authority for the delivery of housing initiatives.
- The creation of an entity that is focused specifically on meeting housing challenges within Nunavut and providing housing solutions using a one-window approach.

Our Mission

To provide opportunities for all residents of Nunavut to have homes that support a healthy, secure, independent and dignified lifestyle through working with our communities to allow them to assume the role of providing housing to Nunavummiut.

Our Vision

To ensure families and individuals in Nunavut have access to a range of affordable housing options.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCAN

Delivery

Adequate, affordable and appropriate shelter is a key factor in achieving well-being, including the ability to participate and to achieve success in economic activities. Housing is also an important economic sector that responds to new and ongoing infrastructure needs. It is a source of employment and a driver for the market for materials and services.

New construction by the private sector is usually responsive rather than proactive. The continued training of Nunavummiut in the construction fields is a cornerstone to economic well-being in the housing construction industry. Over time, as more Nunavummiut become skilled in these trades, the overall economic impact of the housing industry within Nunavut will increase.

There is an extremely limited private market in Nunavut: most landlords/developers only respond to tenders, or initiate new development, that in turn promises long-term government leases. The cost to transport materials, obtain developed land, and construct and operate dwellings, makes building on speculation unpalatable for most.

Nunavut's climate and geography also present unique challenges to the construction industry. The territory's 25 communities are remote, with no road or rail access. All construction materials must be transported by air or on the annual summer sealift. As a result, the cost of landed goods is substantially higher than elsewhere in Canada.

Adequate and secure storage facilities must be available to accommodate a 12-month supply of materials. In addition, the first snowfall usually occurs around the time that the sealift ship arrives in many communities, complicating or impeding construction. As such, the NHC will continue to lobby for improved storage facilities and increased capacity for Local Housing Organizations (LHOs) to address these challenges.

The NHC relies on its community partners, the LHOs, to provide maintenance and administration services on housing units. With the Nunavut Housing Trust (NHT) a number of our LHOs have engaged in the construction of NHT units. This provides more local control over community construction activities such as hiring, as well as learning valuable administrative and project management skills. The NHC also looks to these partners for valuable insight on community priorities and concerns.

The NHC recognizes the value of enhancing LHO capacity and has therefore identified supporting the LHOs as a critical priority for 2011-2014. At present, many of the LHOs operate out of facilities originally built to support and maintain a much smaller housing inventory. Furthermore, unprecedented construction is taking place across the territory; however, few investments have been made to enhance the LHOs, beyond their regular operating funding. For example, the condition of certain LHO warehouses and storage

Nunavut Housing Corporation facilities is identified as a critical issue by both the Corporation and by the Office of the Auditor General.

Supply

According to the 2010 Nunavut Housing Needs Survey, fifty-one percent of Nunavut's population resides in public housing and tenancy in these units is ninety-nine percent Inuit. Due to the absence of private affordable rental housing and given the high costs of independent homeownership, public housing units are home to approximately half of Nunavummiut.

The GN is the principal supplier of the 9,400 dwelling units in the territory. The government, through the NHC, currently maintains approximately 4,434 public housing units (of which 4,170 are NHC-owned and 264 are leased), 1,344 staff housing units (of which 246 are owned and 1,098 are leased), and holds mortgages for 500 homeowners. This represents over sixty-seven percent of Nunavut's total housing stock. The remaining thirty-three percent of Nunavut's housing stock includes privately owned, federal/municipal staff accommodations, other private sector employers' staff accommodations, Nunavut Arctic College student housing or Income Support funded units.

Each Public Housing unit requires approximately $22,777 dollars per year to operate and maintain. However, funding from CMHC for the social housing inventory that was transferred to the Corporation in 1999 is declining and will terminate completely in 2037. Additional resources will need to be identified and dedicated to the operations and maintenance of public housing.

The NHC is committed to delivering new and refreshing existing homeownership programs to assist people who are ready to gain the advantages of independence from the Public and Staff Housing Programs. Every new homeowner either frees up a rental unit in the public or staff housing portfolios, or reduces an existing home's occupancy level.

Unfortunately, homeownership remains unattainable for most Nunavummiut. Ongoing payments for basic shelter components are very high: in 2009, on average, it costs $976 per month for fuel, water, garbage, power, insurance, maintenance, and land lease fees.

Despite extensive public and staff housing portfolios and homeownership programs, overcrowding continues to be an issue of critical concern in the territory. The Indigenous Children's Health Report (2009) cites overcrowding and poor housing conditions as contributing to the high rates of infant mortality amongst Inuit. The Aboriginal Children's Survey (Statistics Canada, 2006) reports that nearly half of young Inuit children live in crowded dwellings. In 2004, the Ten-Year Inuit Housing Action Plan estimated that 3,000 public housing units are required over a ten-year time span to alleviate current housing needs, and an additional 270 units per year are required to meet the needs of Nunavut's growing population.

While research clearly indicates that overcrowding in Nunavut negatively affects our communities, there is a lack of quantitative data identifying the housing shortage, the type of housing required to meet the demands of a growing population and the resources needed to address the crisis.

As such, the NHC contracted Statistics Canada and the Nunavut Bureau of statistics to conduct a Nunavut Housing Needs Survey (NHNS). The NHNS was a major undertaking for the NHC. Survey results support advocacy efforts for long-term federal funding for public housing and enable the NHC to more effectively direct housing resources to meet the actual housing needs of Nunavummiut.

INUIT EMPLOYMENT PLAN

Nunavut Housing Corporation Inuit Employment Goals

The Nunavut Housing Corporation is fully committed to reaching Article 23 of the Nunavut Land Claim Agreement goal of 85% Inuit employment and plans to increase Inuit employment in the fiscal year 2011-2012. It is important to note, however, that the NHC must address certain challenges to achieve this target. These challenges are outlined in the following section.

The total number of NHC positions in 2010-2011 is 104, up from 89 in 2009-2010. This increase is due to the addition of an indeterminate Policy Analyst (Homelessness) position, as well as 14 term positions created in 2009-2010 and expiring on March 31, 2011 that are not included in the 2012 budget. Meeting the GN target of 56% Inuit employment by the end of fiscal 2011 would require hiring 30 beneficiaries to bring the total of Inuit staff up from 28 to 58. NHC currently does not have enough vacancies for 30 beneficiary hires. The target number of Inuit staff for 2011-2012 is 32. It is important to note that the forecasted Inuit Employment targets are based on the vacancy rate as of June 30, 2010 and the hiring and job offers which have been completed after that date.

NHC Engagement in GN-Wide Initiatives for 2011-2014 to meet Inuit Employment Goals

To meet the challenge of achieving a high level of Inuit employment, the NHC will utilize such programs as the Department of Human Resources' Sivuliqtiksats (Internship) and Mentorship Programs. The NHC also makes use of tools, such as the training and development courses provided by the Department of Human Resources, to assist Inuit employees with the goal of advancing their employment within the NHC. Furthermore, the NHC supports continuous learning with the objective of providing opportunities to Inuit employees who wish to enhance their skills and pursue career opportunities. The development of Inuit staff will allow for the filling of positions that become vacant within the Corporation.

Departmental Initiatives for 2011-2014 to meet Inuit Employment Goals

The NHC is committed to supporting Inuit staff through performance management, on-the-job training, and by encouraging continuous learning. In addition, the NHT Apprenticeship Program is a major long-term strategy to support Inuit employment goals.

One of the key objectives outlined in the Nunavut Housing Trust Delivery Strategy is to support the completion of training for approximately 35-40 new trades-people (Housing Maintenance Servicepersons or other journeypersons). These trades-people have engaged in the long-term maintenance of housing units in Nunavut. They have been trained by way of an apprenticeship program offered in partnership with the NHC, the Department of Education and Nunavut Arctic College. All NHT apprentices are Inuit and, in many cases, they will form the next generation of Local Housing Organization technical staff and/or NHC Community Development Officers (CDOs) in the maintenance and technical streams, which would positively affect the Corporation's IEP numbers.

It is important to recognize that the nature of many of the CDO positions makes it a challenge to retain local applicants within the NHC. Namely, the intensive travel demands and heavy workloads, which include maintenance, technical, programs, and finance responsibilities, are seen as an impediment to maintaining a healthy balance between work and traditional lifestyles/pursuits (including family life, hunting, and community engagement). In addition, these positions are centralized within Nunavut's three districts. Consequently, qualified Inuit applicants, particularly those from smaller communities, are often reluctant to apply. Ideally, if these positions were located at the community level, qualified local residents, including those who achieve their journeyperson certification via the NHT, would be more likely to apply.

The NHT Apprenticeship Program has provided Inuit trades-people with the required skill qualifications to work as journeypersons within the construction industry. However, the NHC recognizes that additional steps must be taken to locate more of these positions at the community level. As part of a long-term project to make Community Development Officer positions more attractive to Inuit applicants, the NHC will begin exploring flexible, creative solutions towards addressing this concern. With very few exceptions, most NHT construction will be completed in the 2010-2011 fiscal year and therefore, there will be very little NHT activity in 2011-2012.

CORE BUSINESS

INTRODUCTION

Nunavut Arctic College is a major contributor to the development of Nunavut and Nunavummiut. Our core business is training for employment. Our goal is building self-reliant families and communities through training and employment.

Mission

The mission of Nunavut Arctic College is to strengthen the people and communities of Nunavut by providing life-long learning opportunities for adult Nunavummiut by appropriately delivering quality career programs developed with input from our partners throughout the Arctic, and by making the benefits of Inuit traditional knowledge and southern science more accessible.

We value our partnerships by:

- Collaborating with other institutions and organizations in order to provide a broad range of programs and services for the people of Nunavut.

Our principles serve as guideposts to create a learning-centered institution that reflects Inuit values, beliefs, and knowledge. Nunavut Arctic College is an inclusive institution that:

STRATEGIC LINK TO TAMAPTA/CL^{CC}:

Nunavut Arctic College is committed to working with the Government of Nunavut to achieve the objectives and priorities of Tamapta/CL^{CC}: Building our future together.

Improve Education and Training Outcomes: Nunavut should have a wider range of options for education, adult learning and training.

- Work on the Nunavut Trade School will continue until it is completed in time to allow trades training in 2010. Subsequent initiatives will expand training capacity for mining occupations.
- Through Nunavut Arctic College and its partners, we will increase post-secondary opportunities in all occupational categories from career training to professional education.

Strategic Goals

The Board of Governors of Nunavut Arctic College has established four strategic goals. The strategic goals will be achieved within the broader context of the vision, principles and priorities of Tamapta/CLC: Building our future together.

- Communities: Improving Programs and Services to Communities

The continuing need for more adult learning opportunities accessible in the communities is found in Tamapta/CLC: Building our future together, Pinasuaqtavut, and the 2006 Report by the Standing Committee on Health and Education. The Nunavut Adult Learning Strategy further identifies literacy and adult basic education as a strategic priority so that Nunavummiut can be fully engaged in adult learning.

- Culture: Building a Culturally Responsive College

The Board of Governors wishes to ensure that Inuit language and culture are the foundation for adult learning at Nunavut Arctic College. The Board welcomes partnership opportunities with communities, schools, regional Inuit associations and Piqqusilirivvik. The Board values the participation of Elders in the learning of its students. The Board of Governors considers the establishment of bilingual learning environments to be an urgent need and supports the development of bilingual learning materials.

- Excellence: Achieving Academic Excellence

The Board of Governors supports appropriate academic standards for all programs. The Board values entrance standards that recognize the different abilities and accomplishments of adult learners and exit standards recognized by employers and the College's post-secondary partners. All programs are expected to provide appropriate Inuit content, community access, and transition-to-work experiences; and undergo periodic quality review and meet acceptable performance standards.

- Strength: Strengthening College Systems and Operations

The Board of Governors recognizes its duty to oversee the management of Nunavut Arctic College in the best interests of both the College and Nunavummiut at large, while recognizing its accountability to the Minister. Arctic College works with the Public Agency Council to maintain accountability and address any issues raised by the Auditor General. Arctic College is forming partnership committees with GN departments to coordinate adult learning and training activities in Nunavut.

The delivery of Arctic College's programs follows the academic year from July 1st to June 30th. The Three Year Program Plan (www.arcticcollege.ca) lists what is being offered in the current academic year (2010-11), what is planned to be offered in the next year (2011-12), and what is hoped to be offered in the following year (2012-13). Changes are made depending on student demand, funding, appropriate facilities and housing, and community need.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCAN

The core business of Nunavut Arctic College is training for employment. In carrying out its core business, Nunavut Arctic College faces unique challenges and opportunities. Five critical challenges influence future decision-making. Responding to these challenges and turning them into opportunities will shape the strategic direction of Nunavut Arctic College during the coming years.

- Inuit Languages and Culture

The Board of Governors wishes to build a college that mirrors Nunavut in terms of its adherence to Inuit societal values, culture, and language. This is reinforced by the requirements of the Inuit Language Protection Act to deliver bilingual services and the demands of the Education Act to train bilingual teachers.

- Educational Attainment

Nunavut lags the rest of Canada in educational attainment (2006 Census). About 60% of adult Inuit Nunavummiut do not have a high school diploma or equivalency. Only 4% have some university. Lower educational attainment is reflected in lower employment and earnings. There is a pressing need to encourage and enable mature students to acquire the academic foundations needed to be successful in higher education and employment.

- Economic Growth

Despite the economic downturn, there is ongoing demand in the construction industry. The Government of Nunavut continues to need trained employees to serve Nunavummiut, particularly in health and education. Much of the future economy will be driven by the mining industry. The demands of the transportation industry are also increasing. In contrast to the traditional economy, the emerging contemporary economy expects a high school diploma as a basic job entry requirement and college or university for career advancement.

- Demographics

Unlike the rest of Canada (2006 Census), the 20-40 year-old population is being followed by a larger 0-19 year-old population. In order to be proactive, it is necessary to build the adult learning and training capacity needed in the near future to serve the Nunavut society and economy.

- Geography

Nunavut has the most widely dispersed population in Canada. Arctic College’s major programs and facilities are centered in three communities – Iqaluit, Rankin Inlet and Cambridge Bay – comprising about one-third of Nunavut’s population. The remaining two-thirds of Nunavummiut have limited access to adult learning through their local Community Learning Centres unless they move to a regional campus. Making more adult learning and training accessible the communities will reduce the relocation and dislocation of students and their families. It will enable more Nunavummiut to get employment and advance their careers. Though distance learning technologies, methodologies, and curriculum exist, current cost and lack of band-width limit full Nunavummiut participation in e-learning.

INUIT EMPLOYMENT PLAN

Nunavut Arctic College shares the objective of Article 23 of the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement "to increase Inuit participation in government employment in the Nunavut Settlement Area to a representative level." Arctic College contributes in two ways. First, it strives to increase the employment of Beneficiaries in the college. Second, it strives to increase the number of Beneficiary graduates from its programs thereby enabling more Beneficiaries to be eligible for employment in Nunavut.

Inuit Employment Goal

The goal of Nunavut Arctic College is to increase Inuit employment. (See appendix 1.) The focus is on the Professional (instructors) category. The Professional category is critical because the Board of Governors considers a bilingual learning environment to be an urgent need. It is difficult to fill because eligible instructors require formal qualifications and positions must be filled before the instructional term begins.

Inuit Employment Targets

To significantly increase Inuit employment, the attrition rate has to increase and/or the vacancy rate has to decrease. However increasing the attrition rate would mean losing experienced employees and reducing the quality of our capacity to train Nunavummiut for employment. Therefore the focus is on reducing the vacancy rate by increasing Inuit employment, particularly in the professional category.

The next critical area is management. However the factors are different. The executive, senior, and middle management categories have comparatively few vacancies and therefore fewer opportunities for Inuit employment. However in the five-year future several managers will be eligible for retirement which will create opportunities for increasing Inuit employment.

Inuit Employment Initiatives

To increase Inuit professional employment in response to the Board's statement that "a bilingual learning environment is an urgent need", Nunavut Arctic College is taking two significant steps. First, Arctic College annually sponsors the Instructor Development Program recognized by the University of New Brunswick. The program will help qualify Inuit candidates for employment in selected instructional positions. Second, we strive to recruit bilingual Adult Educators and at least one bilingual instructor for the diploma and degree career programs. Management is the next critical category. Anticipating future retirements, Nunavut Arctic College has initiated succession planning and mentorship for this category.

Part of the long-term solution to achieving representative Inuit employment is for Nunavut Arctic College to convocate more bilingual graduates and encourage more of them to seek employment opportunities within the College.

CORE BUSINESS

The core business of Nunavut Arctic College is training for employment through the delivery of adult learning and training to adult Nunavummiut throughout Nunavut. Our goal is building self-reliant communities and families through training and employment.

Nunavut Arctic College's programs and services are accessible from many different locations throughout Nunavut. There are Community Learning Centres in all Nunavut communities. Other facilities include headquarters in Arviat, the Nunavut Research Institute in Iqaluit, the Igloolik Oral History Research Centre, and the regional campuses in Cambridge Bay, Iqaluit, and Rankin Inlet.

The programs and services of Nunavut Arctic College are very decentralized. For the purposes of this Business Plan, they are grouped together into nine business lines. The table below includes both Main Estimates and Third Party funding. The seven program lines together represent 71% of the total 2011-12 budget of Nunavut Arctic College.
