

you anticipate following up on that and when do you anticipate a policy being created? By the end of this fiscal year or by the end of 2016? Thank you, Madam Chairperson. That's my last question.

Chairperson: Thank you, Mr. Mikkungwak. I think she sort of answered that, but I'll pass it over to Ms. Inutiq once again.

Ms. Inutiq: I can. It's something that I can check on after in the next little while just to get an update on what's happening with both the guidelines and the review of the human resource policies. It wasn't within my radar in the next little while, but it can be if the Members feel that it is important. Thank you, Ms. Chairperson.

Chairperson: Thank you, Ms. Inutiq. I think we look forward to that information. If you can pass that onto us, it would be great.

Before I wrap this up, I better ask if there are any more questions for the Languages Commissioner and if not... Really? Mr. Joanasie wants to ask one question. Mr. Joanasie.

Mr. Joanasie (interpretation): Thank you, Madam Chairperson. This is primarily a clarification request as well as a question on the status of your investigations. You said that you did six investigations and one was said to be inadmissible. If you look on page 30 in the Inuktitut version, it states that the concern was inadmissible. I believe the English version has that on page 150, where a person wanted to communicate with a hamlet in the English language.

They were asked to translate the correspondence into Inuktitut for the
