Legislative Assembly of Nunavut to sit in Baker Lake from June 2 - 6, 2003

IQALUIT, Nunavut (March 24, 2003) - The Members of the Legislative Assembly of Nunavut have announced that the spring sitting of the Assembly in Baker Lake will be held between June 2-6, 2003.

"I am very pleased to have the opportunity to welcome the Members of the Legislative Assembly to my home community and show them the kind of hospitality for which Qaminittuarmit are renowned," said Baker Lake MLA Glenn McLean. "This is an excellent opportunity for the people of Baker and the members of their government to get to know one another a little better."

Jobie Nutartak, Chair of Full Caucus, expressed his satisfaction with the Assembly's ongoing efforts to hold sittings in communities outside Iqaluit. "This is an important expression of our commitment to bringing government closer to the people it serves."

The Legislative Assembly held decentralized sittings in Rankin Inlet during February 2000, in Cambridge Bay during May 2001 and in Pangnirtung during October 2002.
