

Request for Expressions of Interest Hansard Production Services

The Office of the Legislative Assembly of Nunavut is inviting expressions of interest for the provision of Hansard production services.

Hansard is the substantially verbatim report of proceedings of the Legislative Assembly and its committees. Nunavut Hansard is published in both Inuktitut and English.

Expressions of interest are invited from interested parties who may wish to consider submitting a detailed proposal for the provision of Hansard production services on a contractual basis for a five-year term, commencing on April 1, 2024.

Expressions of interest must provide an outline of the proponent's relevant professional experience and capacity in the fields of Inuit Language and English transcription, editing and publication.

Following review of the submitted expressions of interest, the Office of the Legislative Assembly may issue a formal Request for Proposals.

Copies of Nunavut Hansard may be downloaded from the Legislative Assembly's website at <https://www.assembly.nu.ca/hansard>. Information concerning the history of Hansard and related editorial standards and practices is published by the Hansard Association of Canada: <https://www.hansard.ca/>.

Expressions of interest will be accepted until 5:00pm (EST) on Friday, September 1, 2023. Inquiries should be directed to:
