The proceedings of the Youth Parliament will be held in the Chamber of the Legislative Assembly on Thursday, November 27, 2014, starting at 1:30pm (EST). The proceedings of the Youth Parliament are open to the public to observe from the Visitors' Gallery.

“Participating in Youth Parliament provides students with the opportunity to learn about our territory's democratic institutions and experience the role of an elected Member of the Legislative Assembly,” said Speaker Qulaut.

This year's Youth Parliamentarians are enrolled in high schools from across Nunavut. Students who were selected to represent Nunavut's twenty-two constituencies submitted applications to participate in the Youth Parliament through their respective schools.
