Order of Nunavut Advisory Council Issues Public Invitation to Nunavut Artists

IQALUIT, Nunavut (April 8, 2010) – Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and Chairperson of the Order of Nunavut Advisory Council James Arreak today announced that the Council has issued a public invitation to Nunavut artists to submit designs for the medal that will be presented to members of the Order of Nunavut.

“This is a unique opportunity for a Nunavut artist to create an enduring design that will gain national recognition,” said Speaker Arreak.

On January 1, 2010, The Order of Nunavut Act came into force. The objective of the Order is to recognize individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the cultural, social or economic well-being of Nunavut. The Order is the highest honour of Nunavut and takes precedence over all other orders, decorations or medals conferred by the Government of Nunavut.

Information concerning the submission process is available from the offices of Members of the Legislative Assembly and on the Legislative Assembly’s website at www.assembly.nu.ca

“The Council looks forward to unveiling the winning design this summer,” said Speaker Arreak.
