Question:

3 What is the Protocol when the Minister is out of the office?

Response:

Ministers are deemed to be performing their duties as a Minister at all times unless they have informed the Premier they are unavailable to perform these duties. If a Minister is away on either duty or home travel, they must notify the Premier's office of the nature of the trip and the time away from the office. If a Minister is away from the office and unable to perform the duties of their portfolio, Section 68 of the Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act allows the Premier to designate another Minister to act in the Minister's stead.
