

Written Question

40-5(2)

Date: June 3, 2019

Asked by: Pat Angnakak, MLA
Iqaluit-Niaqungnuu

Asked of: Hon. George Hickes, MLA
Minister of Health

Title: Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder

1. For the following fiscal years, how many children in Nunavut were diagnosed with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder:
 - a. 2018-2019
 - b. 2017-2018
 - c. 2016-2017
 - d. 2015-2016

2. For the following fiscal years, how many adults in Nunavut were diagnosed with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder:
 - a. 2018-2019
 - b. 2017-2018
 - c. 2016-2017
 - d. 2015-2016

3. How many Nunavut residents are presumed to suffer from Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder without a formal diagnosis?

4. For the following fiscal years, how many Nunavut children were sent out of the territory for services related to Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder:
 - a. 2018-2019
 - b. 2017-2018
 - c. 2016-2017
 - d. 2015-2016

5. For the following fiscal years, how many Nunavut adults were sent out of the territory for services related to Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder:
 - a. 2018-2019
 - b. 2017-2018
 - c. 2016-2017
 - d. 2015-2016

6. What specific training to identify children or young adults with FASD is provided to health care workers in:
 - a. Community Health Centres
 - b. Public Health Centres
 - c. Regional Health Centres
 - d. Qikiqtani General Hospital

7. What specific counselling is provided to families and caregivers of individuals with FASD?

8. What proposals has the Department of Health submitted to the federal government for specific funding to address Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder in Nunavut?

9. For the following fiscal years, how much funding has been specifically allocated to address Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder in Nunavut:
 - a. 2018-2019
 - b. 2017-2018
 - c. 2016-2017
 - d. 2015-2016